Man and society in Iran Riḍā Arāsta,1964 Man and Society in Iran Arasteh,2023-09-20 Man and Society in Iran `Abd al-Riḍā Ārāsta,1964 Cross-cultural Caring ,2005 This newly revised edition of Cross Cultural Caring A Handbook for Health Professionals looks at Vietnamese Cambodian and Laotian Chinese Japanese Iranian South Asian and Central American ethno cultural groups It stresses the need to understand both the cultural beliefs and the daily life concerns facing immigrants such as work income child rearing and aging all of which impinge on health This long awaited new edition provides up to date statistics and fresh analysis responding to changing trends in immigration Additional material includes a new chapter addressing the special circumstances of refugees short real life stories of immigrants and refugees experiences and a thorough easy to use index R sum de l diteur Man and Society in Iran A. Reza Arasteh,1970 Russia and Iran, 1780-1828 Muriel Atkin,1980-05-01 Russia and Iran 1780 1828 was first published in 1980 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Modern Russo Iranian relations date from the late eighteenth century when after several centuries of commercial and diplomatic contact the two nations entered a period of extended warfare for possession of the Caucasian borderlands disputed territory that eventually fell to Russia In her history of that struggle Muriel Atkin reassesses the motives of major figures on both sides and views the Iranians with more sympathy than Western and Russian historians have usually accorded them Russia embarked on her course in the Caucasus for reasons connected with defense or trade and with a longterm imperial goal based on uncritical acceptance of prevailing European doctrines of empire The new dynasty in Iran on the other hand had to fend off Russian attack and secure the borderlands in order to justify its basic claim to power In the end the wars brought major disruption to the already unstable borderlands and left Iran with a discredited government and a controversy over reforms and relations with the West that would continue to cause turmoil in subsequent generations Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi,2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran's modern history By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani,2013-09-05 First Published in 1987 this volume offers a bibliography of biographies autobiographies and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th century figures on the topic of Iran

Iran, Israel, and the Jews Aaron Koller,Daniel Tsadik,2019-03-28 Iran Israel and the Jews have a relationship that is in the news all the time But it cannot be understood just in modern terms Its roots are 2 500 years old This volume surveys that history through case studies and broad overviews from the first intensive contacts under Cyrus the Great through Persian influence on Judaism evident in the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Babylonian Talmud into the Middle Ages and the flourishing of Judeo Persian literature and culture and finally into modern times when the political social and cultural ties are multifaceted and profound Written by experts in both Iranian and Jewish studies these essays convey the richness and complexity of a long and tumultuous relationship between two ancient and great civilizations which continues to shape the world today Man and society in Iran by A.R.Arasteh in collaboration with J. Arasteh A. Reza Arasteh, Iran's Grand Strategy Vali Nasr,2025-05-20 Two pervasive fears of external aggression and internal dissolution have dominated political discourse and state action in Iran for many decades and arguably for centuries This book closely examines these fears how they've shaped political trends in Iran and specifically how they have undergirded the conduct of state actors during both the regime of the Shah the Pahlavi monarchy of the twentieth century and the Islamic Republic since the 1979 revolution Drawing on archival sources in the West and in Iran as well as interviews with key Iranian decision makers both past and present Vali Nasr traces this thread of national security through key modern historical episodes in Iran By viewing modern Iranian history through this lens Nasr argues that decrying the current Iranian regime as a theocracy is a tired rhetorical move and inaccurate as an explanation for how it conducts itself in the world Today's Islamic Republic functions as a modern legal rational nation state It is one that has evolved around a distinct and deeply held view of national interest and national security rooted in both recent and not so recent history Nasr's book will serve as a corrective to a deeply rooted view in policy making circles that the Iranian ruling elite's commitment to Islamic theocracy has driven the country's foreign policy since the time of the revolution Public Administration in the Third World V. Subramaniam,1990-06-26 This multiauthor reference handbook gives a detailed objective picture of the evolution structure and processes of public administration in representative Third World countries Written by an international group of specialists with first hand knowledge of the subject it presents empirical studies of developing nations in Asia the Middle East North and Sub Saharan Africa the West Indies and Latin America The resulting data are shaped by the editor into a theoretical framework delineating the complex relationships of state bureaucracy and class in the Third World Subramaniam's introduction provides a critical overview of development literature in the field Each case study begins with an historical introduction and discusses the political executive and the administrative structures and processes Among the specific topics covered are public enterprises administrative departments personnel financial administration and regional and local administrative units The majority of the systems studied are affected by the unregulated power of public enterprises the persistence of colonial legacies and the elitism of the bureaucracy The concluding section relates these common elements to the sociohistorical characteristics of the middle class groups that dominate both politics and public administration Offering new research findings and a useful theoretical synthesis this study will promote a clearer understanding of the internal political processes of Third World nations and be of compelling interest to specialists and students concerned with Third World political economy comparative government and international political economy

Men of Order Touraj Atabaki, Erik J. Zürcher, 2004-07-23 Nationalism nation building and defensive modernisation were the main themes of the cultural revolution underpinning the totalitarian and secular regimes of Ataturk and Reza Shah which replaced the traditional Qajar state of Iran and the long declining Ottoman Empire The authors trace the emergence of Ataturk and Reza Shah through the constitutional revolutions in Iran and the Ottoman Empire and the introduction of European social models the establishment of dictatorship and of secularist reforms resulting in both cases in totalitarian nationalist and quasi westernised states and the personality cult of the leader The legacy of both was a chasm between the elite and the masses and provided the seeding of an Islamic mass movement
