Man And Society In Nineteenth Century Realism:

Man and Society in Nineteenth-century Realism Maurice Larkin,1977 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers,2006-06-15 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism is an anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of recent European literature Each chapter is devoted to one particular school of movement from within the broad body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism though to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s and the more recent initiative of postmodernism These texts are approached both on their own terms as individual formulations of the goals and procedures literary aesthetic and political that characterized the work of these writers and as key documents of the literary school or movement to which these writers belonged Routledge Revivals: Barnaby Rudge (1987) Thomas Jackson Rice,2018-02-01 Originally published in 1987 Barnaby Rudge is a comprehensive collection of bibliographical resources surrounding Dickens fifth novel Barnaby Rudge The book addresses what the author terms a prevalent lack of research surrounding the novel The collection lists bibliographic references which not only looks at the novel itself but also covers older resources that interested Dicken s first critics such as the originality of the settings and characters The book s core focus is examining the novel s historical subject matter in the context of the social and political context in which it was written The book acts as a core resource for research on Barnaby Rudge Evolution, Sacrifice, and Narrative Carol Colatrella,2016-07-22 First published in 1990 Balzac Zola and Faulkner all drew upon the principles of evolutionary theory to represent man s place in nature and his struggle for survival in their major series La Com die humaine Rougon Macquart and the Yoknapatawpha fiction This book focuses on the first novels in each author s series La P re Goriot La Fortune des Rougon and Flags in the Dust and considers how each novel relates to its series and derives a definition of the naturalistic roman fleuve To describe this development the issues of how a scientific idea becomes refracted in a literary genre and how the naturalistic novel developed out of the realistic novel are considered The Other Self Dēmētrēs Tziovas,2003-01-01 The Other Self is the first English language book length literary analysis of some of the most celebrated Greek novels of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A must read for anyone interested in Greek literature and culture it offers both a solid introduction to modern Greek literature and close reading of individual texts Author Dimitris Tziovas focuses on the issues of identity autobiography and social determinism raised in these texts providing a fresh perspective and suggesting new ways of exploring forms of engagement between self and society Greek narratives of self Tziovas suggests are not naked and transparent presentations of existence but articulations of the relationship between the individual and the social world they are negotiations of the past through the otherness of the present A compelling demonstration of the richness and complexity of modern Greek fiction The Other Self provides exciting and challenging interpretations of Greek literature and Greek society The Russian Hero in Modern Chinese Fiction Mau-sang Ng,1988-01-01 The Russian influence took root in the Chinese intellectual tradition that evolved after the Literary Revolution of 1917. When the Chinese communists turned to Russia for their inspiration, they also accepted the Russian version of the novel's form and function in society. However, they did not accept it uncritically. Chinese understanding of the arts goes back for thousands of years, and thus Chinese intellectuals brought their own kinds of tradition and intelligence to these new arts and political solutions. In this lucid study, the author demonstrates how Chinese writers, guided by Russian authors such as Chekhov, Turgenev, and Andreiev, created works of art that are both original and Chinese. However, he also shows that the familiar heroes of such famous novelists as Lu Xun, Yu Dafu, Mao Dun, and Ba Jin have a strong Russian flavor, linked to prototypes in the Russian literary tradition. The author depicts the fortune of Soviet literature and the fate of the intellectual hero in the People's Republic of China. He believes that the humanistic May Fourth intellectual tradition, which inspired enthusiasm for classical Russian literature, has been revived with the publication of works like Dai Houying's Man ah Man and Zhao Zhenkai's Waves. The Ashgate Research Companion to Nineteenth-Century Spiritualism and the Occult Tatiana Kontou, 2016-03-23. Critical attention to the Victorian supernatural has flourished over the last twenty-five years. Whether it is spiritualism or Theosophy, mesmerism, or the occult, the dozens of book-length studies and hundreds of articles that have appeared recently reflect the avid scholarly discussion of Victorian mystical practices. Designed both for those new to the field and for experts, this volume is organized into sections covering the relationship between Victorian spiritualism and science, the occult and politics, and the culture of mystical practices. The Ashgate Research Companion to Nineteenth-Century Spiritualism and the Occult brings together some of the most prominent scholars working in the field to introduce current approaches to the study of nineteenth-century mysticism and to define new areas for research. German Encounters With Modernity Katherine Roper, 1991. The novels of Imperial Berlin, a rich repository of social discourse about the simultaneous experiences of nationhood and modernity in Imperial Germany, reveal distinct historical and cultural obstacles impeding authors' attempts to envision a humane, modern German identity. George Eliot Karen L. Pangallo, 1990. The boom in feminist criticism over the past two decades has led to a Renaissance in Eliot studies, as Perlis explains in his introduction to this volume: feminist interpretation is essential to understanding a writer whose fundamental theme was the constraint and trauma suffered by Victorian women. Comprehensively covering Eliot scholarship published from 1972 through to 1987, this annotated bibliography is the first to affirm the sweeping changes in Eliot studies. It lists and annotates many works that establish the social and personal context in which the novels were written, including Haight's nine-volume compilation of Eliot's letters, which was a catalyst for much subsequent scholarship. The Nouveau Roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019. This volume explores the influence of the avant-garde French novel form, known as Nouveau Roman, on experimental prose fiction and post-war literary culture in Britain. A Bibliography of Anton Chekhov in English Lauren G. Leighton, 2005. It is not possible to provide a comprehensive selection of an estimated 350,000 reviews of Chekhov plays (1994-2003), but an attempt has been made to provide a representative sampling of reviews in major newspapers and current periodicals Citations throughout this Bibliography are full and unabbreviated the intent being to provide access to each work in every appropriate category without complicating the search process with confusing cross listings Entries for collections are accompanied by listings of contents in the order given in tables of contents or alphabetically Entries for collections provide a base for subsequent listings of individual major works for addition of subsequent editions reprints and re publications Translations of plays are categorized by their most commonly known English titles and cited within categories by the English title given for a particular translation
