The Cinema of Andrzej Wajda John Orr, Elżbieta Ostrowska, 2003 Home to the New York Yankees the Bronx Zoo and the Grand Concourse the Bronx was at one time a haven for upwardly mobile second generation immigrants eager to leave the crowded tenements of Manhattan in pursuit of the American dream Once hailed as a wonder borough of beautiful homes parks and universities the Bronx became during the 1960s and 1970s a national symbol of urban deterioration Thriving neighborhoods that had long been home to generations of families dissolved under waves of arson crime and housing abandonment turning blocks of apartment buildings into gutted graffiti covered shells and empty trash filled lots In this revealing history of the Bronx Evelyn Gonzalez describes how the once infamous New York City borough underwent one of the most successful and inspiring community revivals in American history From its earliest beginnings as a loose cluster of commuter villages to its current status as a densely populated home for New York's growing and increasingly more diverse African American and Hispanic populations this book shows how the Bronx interacted with and was affected by the rest of New York City as it grew from a small colony on the tip of Manhattan into a sprawling metropolis This is the story of the clattering of elevated subways and the cacophony of crowded neighborhoods the heady optimism of industrial progress and the despair of economic recession and the vibrancy of ethnic cultures and the resilience of local grassroots coalitions crucial to the borough's rejuvenation In recounting the varied and extreme transformations this remarkable community has undergone Evelyn Gonzalez argues that it was not racial discrimination rampant crime postwar liberalism or big government that was to blame for the urban crisis that assailed the Bronx during the late 1960s Rather the decline was inextricably connected to the same kinds of social initiatives economic transactions political decisions and simple human choices that had once been central to the development and vitality of the borough Although the history of the Bronx is unquestionably a success story crime poverty and substandard housing still afflict the community today Yet the process of building and rebuilding carries on and the revitalization of neighborhoods and a resurgence of economic growth continue to offer hope for the future

Documentary David Saunders, 2010-04-21 This clear lively introduction to documentary covers its history cultural context and development and the approaches methods and functions inherent to non fiction filmmaking

Introduction to Documentary, Third Edition Bill Nichols, 2017-03-27 The third edition of Bill Nichols's best selling text provides an up to date introduction to the most important issues in documentary history and criticism A new chapter I Want to Make a Documentary Where Do I Start guides readers through the steps of planning and preproduction and includes an example of a project proposal for a film that went on to win awards at major festivals Designed for students in any field that makes use of visual evidence and persuasive strategies Introduction to Documentary identifies the genre's distinguishing qualities and teaches the viewer how to read documentary film Each chapter takes up a discrete question from How did documentary filmmaking get started to Why are ethical issues central to documentary filmmaking Here Nichols has fully rewritten each chapter for greater clarity and ease of use including revised discussions of earlier films and new commentary on dozens of recent films from The Cove to The Act of Killing and from Gasland to Restrepo

The Works of Thomas Reid, P. D., Now Fully Collected, with Selections from His Unpublished Letters Thomas Reid, 1849

Projecting Race Stephen Charbonneau, 2016-06-14 Projecting Race presents a history of educational documentary filmmaking in the postwar era in light of race relations and the fight for civil rights Drawing on extensive archival research and textual analyses the volume tracks the evolution of race based nontheatrical cinema from its neorealist roots to its incorporation of new documentary techniques intent on recording reality in real time The films featured include classic documentaries such as Sidney Meyers's The Quiet One 1948 and a range of familiar and less familiar state sponsored educational documentaries from George Stoney Palmour Street 1950 All My Babies 1953 and The Man in the Middle 1966 and the Drew Associates Another Way 1967 Final chapters highlight community development films jointly produced by the National Film Board of Canada and the Office of Economic Opportunity The Farmersville Project 1968 The Hartford Project 1969 in rural and industrial settings Featuring testimonies from farm workers activists and government officials the films reflect communities in crisis where organized and politically active racial minorities upended the status quo Ultimately this work traces the postwar contours of a liberal racial outlook as government agencies came to grips with profound and inescapable social change
