Mercedes García-Arenal, Gerard Wiegers, 2003-06-18 In the late fifteenth century many of the Jews expelled from Spain made their way to Morocco and established a dynamic community in Fez A number of Jewish families became prominent in commerce and public life there Among the Jews of Fez of Hispanic origin was Samuel Pallache who served the Moroccan sultan as a commercial and diplomatic agent in Holland until Pallache's death in 1616 Before that he had tried to return with his family to Spain and to this end he tried to convert to Catholicism and worked as an informer intermediary and spy in Moroccan affairs for the Spanish court Later he became a privateer against Spanish ships and was tried in London for that reason His religious identity proved to be as mutable as his political allegiances when in Amsterdam he was devoutly Jewish when in Spain a loyal converso a baptized Jew In A Man of Three Worlds Mercedes García Arenal and Gerard Wiegers view Samuel Pallache's world as a microcosm of early modern society one far more interconnected cosmopolitan and fluid than is often portrayed Pallache's missions and misadventures took him from Islamic Fez and Catholic Spain to Protestant England and Holland Through these travels the authors explore the workings of the Moroccan sultanate and the Spanish court the Jewish communities of Fez and Amsterdam and details of the Atlantic Mediterranean trade At once a sweeping view of two continents three faiths and five nation states and an intimate story of one man's remarkable life A Man of Three Worlds is history at its most compelling Man's Life in Three Worlds Annie Besant, 1919 The Philosophy of Person Józef

Tischner, Józef Życiński, George F. McLean, 1994 The Qabalah Papus, 2000-11-15 Papus Dr Gerard Encausse 1865 1916 was one of the great occultists of France and was instrumental in developing and popularizing Eliphas Levi's earlier suggestions of a link between the Hebrew alphabet and the twenty two trumps of the tarot The Qabalah first published in 1892 is particularly valuable because along with his original theoretical explorations of the Qabalah it also contains his complete translation of the Sepher Yetzirah Eliphas Levi's famous Ten Lessons on the Qabalah Rabbi Drach's important and rare treatise The Qabalah of the Hebrews and an extensive Qabalistic bibliography This book gives a concise and valuable introduction to the sacred science of the Hebrews and thus to the esoteric teachings of Christianity Post-Punk

Perception Edmund Wong, 2013-07 Growing up in Singapore in the 80s has been challenging I didn't know much about life or economy I didn't know what I want to do apart from playing I know I had to study and get a job In school we had to write composition about our profession when we grow up I had never wanted to be a philosopher let alone writing about social philosophy It is just that growing up with a single parent is tough It is tougher when she is uneducated and I had to learn most things by myself After my National Service I decided to further studies That was when I was exposed to philosophy and psychology in the UK After graduation in 1999 with a degree in Electronics I came back home to resume my National Service I disrupt it and had about 2 months left The life in UK exposed me to something that I did not notice when growing up in Singapore I find local social scene unsatisfactory They are Confucians Muslims Christians freethinkers and humanists Most time they are preoccupied with how to earn more money Religion does not give me the fulfillment that it promised In addition most were based on Singaporeans interpretation of the Bible and Buddhism's dharma Most times I feel that everything that Singaporeans do has got to do with wealth creation or at least with the expenditure of it It end up like what Pope Francis referred to as the cult of money Organised religion involves more fear mongering than cultivating an inner grace and peace Hence this book is about how I relate an ancient thinker's ethics Aristotle to the present day I find Aristotle's ethics to most suit my needs as a man and lover It does not pretend to be more than what it seek the golden mean It does require us to think and explore the values to find balance and achieve wisdom with intellectual and moral virtues I also find other philosophers French or not particularly insightful and thought provoking They offer me explanation and exploration on subjects like love sex and death Freudian psychoanalysis are also very penetrating in their findings and insights Moreover I needed some contemporary psychological theory not in depth psychoanalysis to back Aristotle's model of ethics intellectual and moral virtues Hence the psychological background of my book I got acquainted with these psychological theories when I was preparing myself to be a financial consultant I later found out more about them and they became useful in my work and life Hence I would like to share it with people in Asia so that they can ask the right kind of questions in life in order to learn more about themselves and the social milieu they are living in Because everyone of us are affected by the social sciences politics economics and sociology This book will I hope allow us to understand why we are irrational and how we can make rational changes through reasonings in their life and achieving eudaimonia My wish is simply to share what I enjoy doing apart from creating useful ideas to improve the world Through my book I hope to make others understand religion science and philosophy and how they play an increasingly integral part in the Asian century The Light of the Soul Alice Bailey, Patanjali, 2012-05-14 This volume is an original paraphrase with commentary of the Yoga Sutras of Patanjali The Yoga Sutras are of ancient origin first reduced to writing by Patanjali who is considered the founder of the Raja Yoga School

Control of the mind and its illumination by the soul are brought about through the practice of Raja Yoga The Sutras have a power and a timelessness about them which demonstrate the accuracy with which they pinpoint the basic truths of human evolution from subservience to personality clamours to the serene freedom of the soul Most human problems today originate in selfish desire the prostitution of the feeling nature to self centred action This is also brought out clearly in the teaching of the Lord Buddha the treading of the Noble Eight Fold path providing the only way out of the maze Right Values Right Speech Right Mode of Living Right Thinking Right Expression Right Conduct Right Effort Right Rapture or True Happiness These are attributes of the soul Patanjali explores exhaustively the means the techniques and the mental posture which create the connecting thread between the form centred personality and these stages towards spiritual achievement and soul fusion identities In particular he illustrates the connections between film production and reception in Bangladesh and a variety of nationalist constructions of Bengali Muslim identity Questioning and debunking the usual notions of Bangladesh and cinema this book positions the cinema of Bangladesh within a transnational frame Starting with how to locate the beginning of the second Bengali language cinema in colonial Bengal the author completes the investigation by identifying a global Bangladeshi cinema in the early twenty first century The first major academic study on this large and vibrant national cinema this book demonstrates that Bangladesh cinema worked as different public spheres for different publics throughout the twentieth century and beyond Filling a niche in Global Film and Media Studies and South Asian Studies it will be of interest to scholars and students of these disciplines
