Write like a Man Ronnie

Grinberg, 2024-03-26 How virility and Jewishness became hallmarks of postwar New York's combative intellectual scene In the years following World War II the New York intellectuals became some of the most renowned critics and writers in the country Although mostly male and Jewish this prominent group also included women and non Jews Yet all of its members embraced a secular Jewish machismo that became a defining characteristic of the contemporary experience Write like a Man examines how the New York intellectuals shared a uniquely American conception of Jewish masculinity that prized verbal confrontation polemical aggression and an unflinching style of argumentation Ronnie Grinberg paints illuminating portraits of figures such as Norman Mailer Hannah Arendt Lionel and Diana Trilling Mary McCarthy Norman Podhoretz Midge Decter and Irving Howe She describes how their construction of Jewish masculinity helped to propel the American Jew from outsider to insider even as they clashed over its meaning in a deeply anxious project of self definition Along the way Grinberg sheds light on their fraught encounters with the most contentious issues and ideas of the day from student radicalism and the civil rights movement to feminism Freudianism and neoconservatism A spellbinding chronicle of mid century America Write like a Man shows how a combative and intellectually grounded vision of Jewish manhood contributed to the masculinization of intellectual life and shaped some of the most important political and cultural debates of the postwar era The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind THE WRITER'S MONTHLY, 1921

Materialisations of a Woman Writer Maria Wikse, 2006 Janet Frame's literary career was inextricably woven into the fabric of the twentieth century New Zealand literary scene. However she also became New Zealand's best known international writer and her great literary influence in both fields has not been charted before now. This study also seeks to redress the excessive commitment in scholarship to maintaining even celebrating Frame's reputation as a psychologically disturbed writer. This book surveys all aspects of Janet Frame's biographical legend by considering her later literary and autobiographical works Jane Campion's film adaptation of the autobiographies An Angel at my Table as well as biographies and literary histories that both rely on and contribute to her well known legend. In doing so the author hopes to offer novel perspectives on Frame's literary production on Frame scholarship on auto biographical theories and on New Zealand literary history.

Behold the Man! Taylor G. Bunch, 2005 The history of mankind is chiefly the record of the character and exploits of the men and women who exerted the greatest influence upon their generation and nation while the Scriptures were written to reveal to the human family a Person its author and chief subject Jesus Christ. Then came Jesus forth wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe And Pilate saith unto them Behold the Man John 19:5

Machinery, 1922 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1924 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1825 Theology and the DC Universe Roshan Abraham, Gabriel McKee, 2023-05-30 Superman's first appearance in Action Comics 1 1938 proclaimed that the character would reshape the destiny of the world. The advent of the first superhero initiated a shared narrative the DC superhero universe that has been evolving in depth and complexity for more than 80 years. Superman, Batman and Wonder Woman have become key threads in the tapestry of the American mythos shaping the way we think about life right and wrong and our relationship with our own universe. Their narrative world is enriched by compelling stories featuring lesser known characters like Dr Fate, the Doom Patrol, John Constantine and the Legion of Super Heroes. Stories set within this shared universe have explored questions of death, rebirth, the apocalypse, the nature of evil, the origins of the universe and the destiny of humankind. This volume brings together the work of scholars from a range of backgrounds who explore the role of theology and religion in the comics, films and television series set in the DC Universe. The thoughtful and incisive contributions to this collection will appeal to scholars and fans alike.
