A Man for All Seasons Mary Billiter,2014-12-15 There are crazier ways to spend a holiday At least that s what journalist Janey Turner keeps telling herself when she agrees to spend

Thanksgiving with the editor she's never met in person before a man who lives 350 miles away The recently divorced mom hopes the trip to Casper Wyoming will be a welcome distraction on her first single holiday and a great chance to pick the boss's brain on how to get a front page byline But the chemistry that flares between her and Joe Argenti is as hot and unexpected as the lightning strike that soon ignites Casper Mountain When a massive wildfire erupts it's Janey's big chance to get ahead but only if she's willing to risk this budding relationship Will her professional dreams cost her a merry Christmas Sensuality Level Behind Closed Doors Frank Sugg: A Man For All Seasons Martin Howe, 2011-05-01 Older readers may remember scoring runs with a Frank Sugg cricket bat or kicking a Frank Sugg football Younger readers may find such implements or even a model boat bearing his name in the attic His cricket and football annuals are collectors items Sugg 1862-1933 was born in Ilkeston Derbyshire but spent his formative years in Sheffield A grammar school boy he decided to forgo a legal career to become a professional cricketer in breach of Victorian convention After an unsuccessful start in first class cricket with Yorkshire he joined Derbyshire but later moved across the Pennines where he played as a hard hitting batsman a smiter for Lancashire and in 1888 twice for England With his brother Walter Frank Sugg opened a sports shop business in Liverpool in 1888 and by 1914 it had grown into one of the leading businesses of its kind The firm failed in the 1920s although an offshoot based in Sheffield continued to trade until 2001 A Christian Scientist by faith Frank Sugg was a fitness enthusiast and involved himself in various sports He played briefly for several leading football clubs took up long distance swimming and was a local champion at athletics billiards bowls and golf With his brother Walter he bought racehorses An appetite for gambling on horses apparently cost him a lot of money Perhaps as an act of charity he was given a county umpire's job at the age of 64 Frank died suddenly aged 71 years soon after the death of his brother and is buried in an unmarked public grave for reasons which remain unclear He certainly knew hard times at the close of his life but Martin Howe reports on Frank Sugg as more of an entertainer and a laddish character A Man For All Seasons: The Life Of K.M. Panikkar Narayani Basu, About the Book AN UNFLINCHING LOOK AT ONE OF INDIA'S MOST FASCINATING FIGURES THE PUBLIC INTELLECTUAL AND DIPLOMAT WHO HELPED SHAPE A POST COLONIAL INDIA K M Panikkar was a multifaceted man one of India's first public intellectuals as India won its independence His imprint is all over India's colonial and post colonial history from constitutional reform in the princely states where he was a strong advocate for India's current federal model to charting India's maritime policy as a free country He believed in an essential Hindu culture that held his land together yet he was a committed secularist He was Gandhi's emissary and the founder of the Hindustan Times He was independent India's first and most controversial ambassador to both Nationalist China and the People's Republic of China He was Nehru's man in Cairo and France and a member of the States Reorganisation Commission He had enemies in the CIA as well as in India's own Ministry of External Affairs He frustrated his admirers as much as he provoked their reluctant respect From the British Raj to the Constituent Assembly across two world wars and an ensuing Cold War K M Panikkar was India's go to man in all seasons Through it all he never stopped writing on Indian identity nationalism history and foreign policy material that remains as relevant today as it was seven decades ago Yet about the man himself strangely little is known In A Man for All Seasons Narayani Basu bridges that gap Drawing on Panikkar s formidable body of work as well as on archival material from India to England from Paris to China and from Israel to the United Nations as well as on first time interviews with Panikkar s family Basu presents a vivid irresistibly engaging portrait of this most enigmatic of India s founding fathers Featuring a formidable cast of characters from Jawaharlal Nehru Mahatma Gandhi and Sardar Patel to Zhou Enlai Chairman Mao and Gamal Abdel Nasser A Man for All Seasons is as much a sweeping history of a young India finding its place in the world as it is the story of a man who was impossible to ignore then and remains so now A Man for All Seasons Heather MacAllister,2010-12-01

Catholic Literature and Film Nancy Enright, 2016-11-21

Catholic Literature and Film Incarnational Love and Suffering is meant to be considered as a work of literary criticism not film adaptation studies In it the author explores six literary works dealing with Catholic themes and the film versions of these works The discussion of the films is at the service of analyzing the texts Underlying all the discussions is an incarnational sacramental view of the texts which links to my interpretation of the film versions of them Catholic and actually any Christian interpretation of literature or film or any other art form is rooted in an iconic and sacramental understanding of imagery as a means of conveying the sacred Catholic spirituality lends itself to this sort of approach as it is deeply rooted in the ability to see sacred things through physical means A key sub theme is romantic love in connection with salvation which Charles Williams one of the Inklings the group of British writers including J R R Tolkien and C S Lewis who met and discussed literature and theology calls the theology of romantic love as well as the sub themes of redemptive suffering and grace My interest in the book is not an analysis of cinematography per se but on the films as vehicles for religious ideas What makes this approach unique is that it doesn't deal with only faith and film as Peter Frazer does very well in his book Images of the Passion The Sacramental Mode in Film for example it also goes beyond the realm of strict literary criticism in its tackling of how religiously oriented works of literature are affected by the transformation into film
