The Man from St. Petersburg Ken Follett, 2003-06-03 Ken Follett has done it once more goes down with the ease and impact of a well prepared martini New York Times Book Review His name was Feliks He came to London to commit a murder that would change history A master manipulator he had many weapons at his command but against him were ranged the whole of the English police a brilliant and powerful lord and the young Winston Churchill himself These odds would have stopped any man in the world except the man from St Petersburg The man from St Petersburg, Ken Follett Ken Follett, Martin* Shaw, 1998 The Working Man's Friend, and Family Instructor , The Man from St Petersburg Spl Ken Follett, 2012-08-01 The Man Without a Face Masha Gessen, 2013-03-05 History of Eastern Europe Russia Tolstoy As Man and Artist with an Essay on Dostoyevsky Dmitry Merezhkovsky, 2021-06-08 Tolstoy as Man and Artist with an Essay on Dostoevsky 1901 is a work of literary criticism by Dmitriy Merezhkovsky Having turned from his work in poetry to a new spiritually charged interest in fiction Merezhkovsky sought to develop his theory of the Third Testament an apocalyptic vision of Christianity's fulfillment in twentieth century humanity In this collection of essays on Tolstoy and Dostoevsky Merezhkovsky explores the spiritual dimensions of the written word by examining the interconnection of being and writing for two of Russian literature's most iconic writers For Dmitriy Merezhkovsky an author who always wrote with philosophical and spiritual purpose the figure of the artist as a human being is a powerful tool for understanding the quality and focus of that artist's work Leo Tolstoy author of such classics as War and Peace and Anna Karenina developed a reputation as an ascetic deeply spiritual man who envisioned his art as an extension of his political and religious beliefs Dostoevsky while perhaps more interested in the psychological aspects of human life pursued a similar path in such novels as The Brothers Karamazov and Crime and Punishment In Merezhkovsky's view these writers came to embody in their lives and works the particularly Russian conflict between truths both human and divine Tolstoy as Man and Artist with an Essay on Dostoevsky is an invaluable text both for its analysis of its subjects and for its illumination of the philosophical concepts explored by Merezhkovsky throughout his storied career With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Dmitriy Merezhkovsky's Tolstoy as Man and Artist with an Essay on Dostoevsky is a classic work of Russian literature reimagined for modern readers Adventures of an Ordinary Man William Goff, 2012-05-10 The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell, Nikolai Kremmentsov, 2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind

The Man who Missed the War Dennis Wheatley, 2014-01-23 When German submarines were sinking so much Allied shipping that Britain faced the danger of starvation Dennis Wheatley then a member of the War Cabinet's Joint Planning Staff suggested that a system of raft convoys moved by the Gulf Stream and prevailing winds should be used to float essential supplies across the Atlantic This story is based on that idea Philip Vaudell leaves the United States on a solitary raft but when he comes across a ploy that would put him in danger he casts away from his crew and the raft is left in the lap of the gods But with Philip was the other real trouble in the enticing shape of red headed Gloria who had stowed away on his raft Instead of drifting into European waters they are carried down to the Antarctic where amidst its eternal snows he discovers a large area with a warm climate and populated by a lost race Will they be able to make contact and request rescue or will they be forced to find a way to integrate with these people Furthermore will they be welcomed or used as part of their ritual human sacrifice

The Races of Man: An Outline of Anthropology and Ethnography Joseph Deniker, 2020-09-28 The innumerable groups of mankind massed together or scattered according to the varying nature of the earth's surface are far from presenting a homogeneous picture Every country has its own variety of physical type language manners and customs Thus in order to exhibit a systematic view of all the peoples of the earth it is necessary to observe a certain order in the study of these varieties and to define carefully what is meant by such and such a descriptive term having reference either to the physical type or to the social life of men This we shall do in the subsequent chapters as we proceed to develop this slight sketch of the chief general facts of the physical and psychical life of man and of the most striking social phenomena of the groups of mankind But there are some general terms which are of more importance than others and their meaning should be clearly understood from the first I refer to expressions like people nation tribe race species in short all the designations of the different groupings real or theoretic of human beings Having defined them we shall by so doing define the object of our studies Since ethnography and anthropology began to exist as sciences an attempt has been made to determine and establish the great groups amongst which humanity might be divided A considerable diversity of opinion however exists among leading scientific men not only as to the number of these groups of these primordial divisions of the human race but above all as to the very nature of these groups Their significance most frequently is very vaguely indicated In zoology when we proceed to classify we have to do with beings which in spite of slight individual differences are easily grouped around a certain number of types with well defined characters called species An animal can always be found which will represent the type of its species In all the great zoological collections there exist these species types to which individuals may be compared in order to decide if they belong to the supposed species We have then in zoology a real substratum for the determination of species those primordial units which are grouped afterwards in genera families orders etc
