Religion, Belief and Unbelief Antoon Vergote, 2024-03-11 This book focuses attention on the central elements of human religious existence Vergote s primary aim and viewpoint are clear to examine empirically and to interpret dynamically the psychological factors at work in the field of religion Vergote consistently adheres to the position that psychology is neither philosophy nor theology and that its task is not to explain religion In this work he situates religion as a cultural fact and studies how persons orient themselves to it positively and or negatively Rather than emphasise and juxtapose belief and unbelief as alternative positions he sees them as threads of experiences interwoven throughout the human existence of persons and institutions In this context he studies motivations and their ambivalences religious experiences and their ambiguities conflicts between religious belief and unbelief and the various expressions and practices of religion
