Meeting Across The River Library Edition:

Meeting Across the River Jessica Kaye, Richard Brewer, 2008-12-04 Bruce Springsteen's melancholy Meeting Across the River a song rarely performed but beloved by his countless fans serves as the inspiration for this eclectic mix of short stories written by an array of acclaimed authors Meeting Across the River from Bruce Springsteen's Born to Run album is a song with an evocative melody and lyrics that unfold like a noir fable a man down on his luck but desperate to make things right with his girl tells his buddy Eddie that they have to get across the river for a last chance meeting with someone all in the hopes of a big score two grand With that money our hero can win back his girl and all will be right with the world but if he and Eddie screw up the consequences will be grave Authors including Eric Garcia C J Box Barbara Seranella David Corbett Gregg Hurwitz and Steve Hamilton among others have written imaginative heartbreaking funny and bold stories based on this classic American story of hope and despair each a surprisingly different experiment with character and plot For as familiar as this story is Springsteen's spare lyrics leave much unsaid How these authors fill in the absences is what makes this collection published a month before the thirtieth anniversary of the release of Springsteen's Born to Run such an unusual treasure proving that just as with music in literature no two performances are alike Jessica Kaye is a publishing law attorney occasional writer and the founder and former publisher of the Publishing Mills an award winning audiobook company as well as a lifelong fan of great music and great writing Richard J Brewer is an author actor and voice over talent for films and audiobooks
