Memoirs Of A Gob:

Memoirs of a Gob Murry Wolffe,1949 Victory Without Peace William N Still,2017-01-15 Victory Without Peace concentrates on the U S Navy in European and Near Eastern waters during the post World War I era As participants in the Versailles peace negotiations the Navy was charged with executing the naval terms of the Armistice as well as preserving stability and peace U S warships were deploying into the Near East Baltic Adriatic and Northern Europe while simultaneously withdrawing its demobilized forces from European waters This signifies the first time the U S Navy contributed to peacetime efforts setting a precedent continues today Conversely Congressional appropriations handicapped this deployment by demobilization general naval policy and postwar personnel and operating funds reductions Though reluctant to allocate postwar assets into seemingly unimportant European and Near Eastern waters the Navy was pressured by the State Department and the American Relief Administration s leader Herbert Hoover to deploy necessary forces Most of these were withdrawn by 1924 and the European Station assumed the traditional policy of showing the flag American Sea Power in the Old World William N Still,2018-02-15 This classic study examines the deployment of U S naval vessels in European and Near Eastern waters from the end of the Civil War until the United States declared war in April 1917 Initially these ships were employed to visit various ports from the Baltic Sea to the eastern Mediterranean and Constantinople today Istanbul for the primary purpose of showing the flag From the 1890s on most of the need for the presence of the American warships occurred in the eastern Mediterranean and the Black Sea Unrest in the Ottoman Empire and particularly the Muslim hostility and threats to Armenians led to calls for protection This would continue into the years of World War I In 1905 the Navy Department ended the permanent stationing of a squadron in European waters From then until the U S declaration of war in 1917 individual ships detached units and special squadrons were at times deployed in European waters In 1908 the converted yacht Scorpion was sent as station ship stationnaire to Constantinople where she would remain operating in the eastern Mediterranean and Black Sea until 1928 Upon the outbreak of World War I President Woodrow Wilson ordered cruisers to northern European waters and the Mediterranean to protect American interests These warships however did more than protect American interests They would evacuate thousands of refugees American tourists Armenians Jews and Italians after Italy entered the conflict on the side of the Allies The Complete Works of Shakspeare, with a Memoir William Shakespeare,1868 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
