New Criterion Reader The First 5 Years:

The Philistine Controversy Dave Beech, John Roberts, 2002-06-17 Dave Beech and John Roberts develop what they call a counter intuitive notion of the philistine with insights on cultural division and exclusion Revolutionary Time and the Avant-Garde John Roberts, 2015-09-15 Why the avant garde of art needs to be rehabilitated today Since the decidedly bleak beginning of the twenty first century art practice has become increasingly politicized Yet few have put forward a sustained defence of this development Revolutionary Time and the Avant Garde is the first book to look at the legacy of the avant garde in relation to the deepening crisis of contemporary capitalism An invigorating revitalization of the Frankfurt School legacy Roberts s book defines and validates the avant garde idea with an erudite acuity providing a refined conceptual set of tools to engage critically with the most advanced art theorists of our day such as Hal Foster Andrew Benjamin Alain Badiou Jacques Rancière Paolo Virno Claire Bishop Michael Hardt and Toni Negri The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod, Jaap Maat, Thijs Weststeijn, 2025-10-01 This book is the first step towards the development of a comparative history of the humanities Specialists in philology musicology art history linguistics literary theory and other disciplines highlight the intertwining of the various fields and their impact on the sciences This first volume in the series The Making of the Humanities focuses on the early modern period Different perspectives reveal how the humanities developed from the liberal arts via the curriculum of humanistic schools to modern disciplines The authors show in particular how discoveries in the humanities contributed to a secular world view pointing up connections with the scientific revolution The main themes are the humanities versus the sciences the visual arts as liberal arts humanism and heresy language and poetics linguists and logicians philology and philosophy the history of history Contributions come from a selection of internationally renowned European and American scholars including Floris Cohen David Cram and Ingrid Rowland The book offers a wealth of insights for specialists students and those interested in the humanities in a broad sense The Moral Foundations of Public Funding for the Arts Michael Rushton, 2023-06-26 This book provides a detailed account and critique of diverse approaches to the arts funding question with a focus on the arm s length arts councils that are the norm in the Anglo American world It builds on economic methods the liberal egalitarian framework of John Rawls the communitarian opposition to the liberal framework the capabilities approach to equality and the cultural conservatism of Roger Scruton and others In each case the book considers the very practical aspect of public funding of the arts namely what are the implications for what ought to receive priority and what parts of the cultural world are best left to their own private sector devices It is not a work of arts advocacy Rather the book challenges assumptions and sparks critical debate in the field The Making of the Humanities Rens Bod, Jaap Maat, Thijs Weststeijn, 2010 This first volume in The making of the humanities series focuses on the early modern period Specialists from various disciplines offer their view on the history of linguistics literary studies musicology historiography and philosophy Visual Shock Michael Kammen, 2009-04-22 In this lively narrative award winning author

Michael Kammen presents a fascinating analysis of cutting edge art and artists and their unique ability to both delight and provoke us He illuminates America s obsession with public memorials and the changing role of art and museums in our society From Thomas Eakins s 1875 masterpiece The Gross Clinic considered too big bold and gory when first exhibited to the bitter disputes about Maya Lin s Vietnam War Memorial this is an eye opening account of American art and the battles and controversies that it has ignited

Einstein on the Beach: Opera beyond Drama Jelena Novak, John Richardson, 2019-12-06 Philip Glass and Robert Wilson s most celebrated collaboration the landmark opera Einstein on the Beach had its premiere at the Avignon Festival in 1976 During its initial European tour Metropolitan Opera premiere and revivals in 1984 and 1992 Einstein provoked opposed reactions from both audiences and critics Today Einstein is well on the way itself to becoming a canonized avant garde work and it is widely acknowledged as a profoundly significant moment in the history of opera or musical theater Einstein created waves that for many years crashed against the shores of traditional thinking concerning the nature and creative potential of audiovisual expression Reaching beyond opera its influence was felt in audiovisual culture in general in contemporary avant garde music performance art avant garde cinema popular film popular music advertising dance theater and many other expressive commercial and cultural spheres Inspired by the 2012 2015 series of performances that re contextualized this unique work as part of the present day nexus of theoretical political and social concerns the editors and contributors of this book take these new performances as a pretext for far reaching interdisciplinary reflection and dialogue Essays range from those that focus on the human scale and agencies involved in productions to the mechanical and post human character of the opera s expressive substance A further valuable dimension is the inclusion of material taken from several recent interviews with creative collaborators Philip Glass Robert Wilson and Lucinda Childs each of these sections comprising knee plays or short intermezzo sections resembling those found in the opera Einstein on the Beach itself The book additionally features a foreword written by the influential musicologist and cultural theorist Susan McClary and an interview with film and theater luminary Peter Greenaway as well as a short chapter of reminiscences written by the singer songwriter Suzanne Vega

Brain Development and Cognition Mark H. Johnson, Yuko Munakata, Rick O. Gilmore, 2008-04-15 The first edition of this successful reader brought together key readings in the area of developmental cognitive neuroscience for students Now updated in order to keep up with this fast moving field the volume includes new readings illustrating recent developments along with updated versions of previous contributions

Tolerance Among the Virtues John R. Bowlin, 2019-07-16 In a pluralistic society such as ours tolerance is a virtue but it doesn t always seem so Some suspect that it entangles us in unacceptable moral compromises and inequalities of power while others dismiss it as mere political correctness or doubt that it can safeguard the moral and political relationships we value Tolerance among the Virtues provides a vigorous defense of tolerance against its many critics and shows why the virtue of tolerance involves exercising judgment across a variety of different circumstances and relationships not simply applying a prescribed set of rules Drawing inspiration from St Paul Aquinas and Wittgenstein John Bowlin offers a nuanced inquiry into tolerance as a virtue He explains why the advocates and debunkers of toleration have reached an impasse and he suggests a new way forward by distinguishing the virtue of tolerance from its false look alikes and from its sibling forbearance Some acts of toleration are right and good while others amount to indifference complicity or condescension Some persons are able to draw these distinctions well and to act in accord with their better judgment When we praise them as tolerant we are commending them as virtuous Bowlin explores what that commendation means Tolerance among the Virtues offers invaluable insights into how to live amid differences we cannot endorse beliefs we consider false actions we think are unjust institutional arrangements we consider cruel or corrupt and persons who embody what we oppose The Europa Year-book Michael Farbman, Ramsay Muir, Hugh F. Spender, 1927 Vols for 1926 27 include section A European bibliography Grand Improvisation Derek Leebaert, 2024-05-01 A new understanding of the postwar power struggle between the fading British Empire and the rising American superpower with insights for today Riveting The Wall Street Journal An enduring myth of the twentieth century is that the United States rapidly became a superpower in the years after World War II when the British Empire the greatest in history was too wounded to maintain a global presence In fact Derek Leebaert argues in Grand Improvisation the idea that a traditionally insular United States suddenly transformed itself into the leader of the free world is illusory as is the notion that the British colossus was compelled to retreat The United States and the U K had a dozen abrasive years until Washington issued a declaration of independence from British influence Only then did America explicitly assume leadership of the world order just taking shape Leebaert's character driven narrative shows such figures as Churchill Truman Eisenhower and Kennan in an entirely new light while unveiling players of at least equal weight on pivotal events Little unfolded as historians believe the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall Plan the Korean War America's descent into Vietnam Instead we see nonstop US improvisation until America finally lost all caution and embraced obligations worldwide a burden we bear today Understanding all of this properly is vital to understanding the rise and fall of superpowers why we are now skeptical of commitments overseas how the Middle East plunged into disorder why Europe is fracturing what China intends and the ongoing perils to the US world role A sturdy exploration of the lesser known aspects of the Cold War focusing on the rivalry between allies as much as enemies Kirkus Reviews Rich with revealing details anecdotes and brilliantly wrought portraits of the key personalities Lively and entertaining this book will change the way we look at the immediate postwar years Liaquat Ahamed Pulitzer Prize winning author of Lords of Finance The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country's oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition Drawing from some 250 volumes editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators no other program has had such a fundamental impact Works by the eighty six poets included her both document and celebrate that contribution

Filming the Modern Middle East Lina Khatib, 2006-09-29 Filming the Modern Middle East is the first comparative investigation of how modern American cinema and the cinemas of the Arab world represent Middle Eastern politics to their audiences Lina Khatib examines the cinematic depictions of major political issues from the Arab Israeli conflict to the Gulf War to Islamic fundamentalism and covers films made in the USA in Egypt Tunisia Morocco Lebanon Syria and Palestine She explores cinema's role as a tool of nationalism in the USA and the Arab world and the challenges the Arab cinemas present to Hollywood's dominant representations of Middle Eastern politics But she also reveals similarities between supposed contradictory cinemas and importantly not only how the Orient is constructed by the Occident but also how the Orient itself in these cinemas represents Self and Others and how it is consumed by internal as well as external struggles This is a fascinating original contribution to the burgeoning interest in world cinemas which also offers a fresh way of seeing Middle East politics through cinematic lenses The Wall Street Journal, 1988 CAPEX Excellence
