On the Street Where You Live Danda Humphreys, 1999 Today the streets of Victoria are busy thoroughfares Yesterday they were simple trails used by the Hudson's Bay Company men and the First Nations people who traded with them and helped build their fort Then came the gold miners followed by the bankers and businessmen sailors and saloon keepers poets postmasters architects and astronomers They're remembered in Victoria's city's streets and every street name tells a story Courtney Street is a misspelled memorial to Captain George W Courtenay whose Constance was one of the first of Her Majesty's vessels to sail into Esquimalt Harbour in the 1840s Fan Tan Alley provides a tantalizing glimpse into 1800s Chinatown where Fan Tan gambling dens existed alongside brothels and opium factories that fuelled the gamblers' fortunes Rattenbury Place is named for the ill-fated architect who designed the Empress Hotel and the Parliament Buildings Danda's knack for colourful no-nonsense writing makes history come alive You'll sympathize with the characters she writes about enjoy them and through their eyes experience 19th-century Victoria in a way you've never experienced it before

The Street Where You Live Donald Empson, 2006 More than one thousand entries and more than one hundred photographs present an entertaining history of the often quirky origins of St Paul place names from A Street to Zimmermann Place and including parks lakes streams roads cemeteries bridges neighborhoods and many other landmarks Original

On the Street where You Live: Victoria's early roads and railways Danda Humphreys, 2000 In the mid 1800s Victoria grew from a fur trading post into a provincial capital the jewel in British Columbia's golden crown Meanwhile many of the early residents happy to leave the Hudson's Bay Company behind followed simple trails from the fort or discovered new routes of their own In her first book Danda Humphreys introduced readers to some of the people who forged those pioneer pathways Now she takes us another step back in time to the roads and railways that connected the original city's core to today's suburbs From Saanich to Sooke street names tell stories of intrigue and adventure Rowland Avenue named for the farm labourer with a sinister sideline hangman for the HBC Joan Crescent where coal baron Robert Dunsmuir's widow once resided in solitary splendour in a castle called Craigdarroch Sidney Avenue close to where the Brethour brothers donated land for the northern terminus of the Cordwood Express first train to link the city with the Saanich Peninsula and the islands in the Strait of Georgia In this second book in her On the Street Where You Live trilogy Danda once again combines her passion for the past with a penchant for lively prose to bring you stories about Victoria s pioneers You know the streets now meet the people their lives their loves and the legends they left behind The Street Where I Live Alan J.
