The Once and Future Gardener Virginia T. Clayton, 2001-06-01 The first four decades of the 20th cent provided the average Amer with the best magazines published in this country as well as our most distinguished garden writing These journals had a formative influence on American culture Many of their garden articles were by renowned authors but some of the best were by amateurs who wrote about their gardens with enthusiasm and intelligence Over 50 of these marvels of garden prose are included here Chapters from Wild Gardens and Formal Gardens to A Year in the Garden and The Philosophical Gardener Includes photos from the articles themselves as well as a color plate section reproducing 21 glorious magazine covers The Art which Mends Nature Eric Aallen MacDonald, 2006 The Gardener's Magazine, 1831, Vol. 7 \(Classic Reprint\) J.
