Advanced Methodological Issues in Culturally Competent Evaluation for Substance Abuse Prevention

Ada-Helen Bayer, Frances L. Brisbane, Amelie Ramirez, Leonard G. Epstein, 1998-04 Provides a clearly defined framework for the study of substance abuse prevention program evaluation in diverse culturally defined settings regardless of the ethnic racial populations involved Topics include acculturation ethnic identification and the evaluation process history and philosophy of a science in a global perspective psychometrics and culture the role of ethics in evaluation evaluating the success of community based prevention efforts the cultural context of epidemiologic research culturally specific approaches and communication and community participation in evaluation processes     Critical Restorative Justice Ivo Aertsen, Brunilda Pali, 2017-11-16 Theories and practices of justice do not meet the socio political challenges of our times For those theorists attempting to develop an alternative to the criminal justice system restorative justice has provided an alternative horizon The restorative justice approach involves meeting people understanding and recognising their vulnerability through participatory and deliberative forums and practices The aim of this collection is to bridge the distance between restorative justice and the critical theory tradition It on the one hand takes into account the limits of restorative justice as they have been articulated or can be articulated through critical social theory and on the other hand emphasises the ground breaking potential that restorative justice can bring to this tradition as a way to address crimes conflicts and injustices and to pursue justice

Advancing Social Justice Through Clinical Practice Etiony Aldarondo, 2007-03-21 There is a healthy development in the human service professions these days At community clinics private practices and universities around the country mental health professionals and service providers are working with increased awareness of the toxic effects of social inequities in the lives of people they aim to help Quietly by acting out their     Advances in Clinical Child Psychology Thomas H. Ollendick, Ronald J. Prinz, 2013-06-29 This volume of Advances in Clinical Child Psychology which is the second under our editorship and the sixteenth of the series continues the tradition of including a broad range of timely topics on the study and treatment of children and adolescents Volume 16 includes contributions pertaining to prevention adolescents families cognitive processes and methodology The issue of prevention in child clinical psychology is no longer restricted to a few speculative sentences in the future directions part of a discussion section Prevention research is actually being undertaken as reflected in two contributions to the volume Winett and Anderson provide a promising framework for the development evaluation and dissemination of programs aimed at the prevention of HIV among youth Lorion Myers Bartels and Dennis address some of the conceptual and methodological issues in preventive intervention research with children Adolescent development and adjustment is an important area of study in clinical child psychology Two contributors address key and somewhat related topics social competence and depression in adolescence Inderbitzen critically reviews the assessment methods and methodologies for social competence and peer relations in adolescence Reynolds analyzes contemporary issues and perspectives pertaining to adolescent depression     Concepts and Theories of Human Development Richard M. Lerner, 2018-04-19 Concepts and Theories of Human Development is the most comprehensive and in depth overview of the foundational theoretical contributions to understanding human development and the influence of these contributions for contemporary research and application in developmental science Since its initial publication in 1976 it has been an essential resource for students and professionals alike and has become the go to book for graduate students studying for their comprehensive exam on human development In this new Fourth Edition Richard M Lerner concentrates his focus on advanced students and scholars already familiar with the basic elements of major psychological theories The book discusses the assumptions involved in such topics as stage theories the nature nurture issue the issue of continuity discontinuity and the important role of philosophical ideas about theories in particular metatheories in understanding the links between theory and research It particularly focuses on relational developmental systems RDS metatheory exploring its roots in the 1930s following its development into the present day and contrasting it with the fundamentally flawed genetic reductionist models that continue to be circulated by scientists the media and the general public It discusses implications of theory for research methods and for applications aimed at the promotion of health positive development and social justice among diverse people across the life span
