Facilitating Developmental Attachment Daniel A. Hughes, 2000-06-01 This book shows how to work successfully with emotional and behavioral problems rooted in deficient early attachments In particular it addresses the emotional difficulties of many of the foster and adopted children living in our country who are unable to form secure attachments Traditional interventions which do not teach parents how to successfully engage the child frequently do not provide the means by which the seriously damaged child can form the secure attachment that underlies behavioral change Dr Daniel Hughes maps out a treatment plan designed to help the child begin to experience and accept from both the therapist and the parents affective attunement that he or she should have received in the first few years of life Hughes approach includes Using foster and adopted parents as co therapists Teaching differentiation between old and new parents Overcoming the perception of discipline as abusive Framing misbehavior discipline conflicts and parental authority as important aspects of a child s learning to trust All children at the core of their beings need to be attached to someone who considers them to be very special and who is committed to providing for their ongoing care Children who lose their birth parents desperately need such a relationship if they are to heal and grow This book shows therapists how to facilitate this crucial bond A Jason Aronson Book

The Handbook of Therapeutic Care for Children Joe Tucci, Janise Mitchell, Edward C Tronick, 2019-09-19 This innovative book brings together a wide range of therapeutic approaches techniques and models to outline recent developments in the practice of supporting children in out of home care It sheds light on the significance of schools sports and peer relationships in the lives of traumatized children It also draws particular attention to the vital importance of taking into account children s cultural heritage and to the growing prevalence of relative care Each chapter is set out by acclaimed and world renowned contributors specific approach such as Dan Hughes and his work on conceptual maps and Cathy Malchiodi and her research on creative interventions and gives practical ways to support children and carers It also includes contributions from Bruce Perry Allan Schore and Martin Teicher This comprehensive volume will open new avenues for understanding how the relationship between child and carer can create opportunities for change and healing
