China as a Sea Power, 1127-1368 Lo Jung-pang,2013-07-15 Lo Jung pang argues that during each of the three periods when imperial China embarked on maritime enterprises the Qin and Han dynasties the Sui and early Tang dynasties and Song Yuan and early Ming dynasties coastal states took the initiative at a time when China was divided maritime trade and exploration subsequently peaked when China was strong and unified and declined as Chinese power weakened At such times China s people became absorbed by internal affairs and state policy focused on threats from the north and the west These cycles of maritime activity each lasting roughly five hundred years corresponded with cycles of cohesion and division strength and weakness prosperity and impoverishment expansion and contraction In the early 21st century a strong and outward looking China is again building up its navy and seeking maritime dominance with important implications for trade diplomacy and naval affairs Events will not necessarily follow the same course as in the past but Lo Jung pang s analysis suggests useful questions for the study of events as they unfold and decades to come The Illustrated London News ,1843 Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper John Albert Sleicher,1876 Leigh Hunt's London Journal ,1835
