Gordon, Tan, Felix B., 2006-04-30. Advanced Topics in Global Information Management is a series of books that examine global information management (GIM) and its research and implications. GIM research continues to progress with some scholars pushing the boundaries of thinking and others challenging the status quo. Advanced Topics in Global Information Management Volume 5 is a part of this series. Advanced Topics in Global Information Management Volume 5 discusses how many businesses exist in a global environment. Whether they are large or small companies, they may have suppliers or customers that reside in different geographical locations. The ability to function in this global environment has been facilitated by the use of information technology. Through research projects, this book addresses the ability of both large and small business and government from the national level to local level to function in altered environments by using information technology. In all of these situations, both businesses and governments must be able to function and respond to various stakeholders by adopting the appropriate and necessary cultural perspective. The Strategy of Structure Leslie Kathleen Williams, 1999. My dissertation has three main goals: 1 to extend the literature on contracting to include an analytical treatment of the governance choices for newly privatized enterprises; 2 to highlight the advantages that may accrue to governments and private investors by choosing one governance arrangement over another; and 3 to perform an empirical analysis on privatized firms to examine the effect of the institutional environment on the distribution of organizational forms across national boundaries The theory and empirical analysis is developed around the experiences with the privatization of telecommunication utilities in industrial developing and transition economies Issues for Infrastructure Management in the 1990s Arturo Israel, 1992-01-01 Vietnam Telecom Industry Business Opportunities Handbook Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information, Regulations IBP, Inc., 2010-08-06 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Vietnam Telecommunication Industry Business Opportunities Handbook New Public Management in Africa Robert E.
