Leadership for Change and

School Reform Kathryn Riley, Karen Seashore Louis, 2013-01-11 School reform is a top priority for governments today This timely and challenging book edited by leading international researchers Kathryn Riley and Karen Seashore Louis offers a rich comparative perspective on leadership for change and school reform Contributors from North America Europe and Australia demonstrate how school leadership is influenced by global pressures differing national and state contexts and local concerns They illustrate the limitations of reform initiatives which focus on school leaders to the exclusion of the many other organisations which affect school such as national and local governments professional associations and school communities This book raises some important questions such as How can school leaders create intelligent thinking schools How can leadership and learning be linked together What are the characteristics of effective local education authorities and school districts What is the role of teacher organisations in educational reform and change What happens if businesses teachers parents and local communities have different views of what makes a good school The text illustrates the ways in which leadership is rooted in learning and identifies new directions for school leadership It challenges conventional notions of leadership offering an expanded view which sees leadership just as an individual role based function but as a network of relationships among people structures and cultures This lively and provocative book should be read by all those interested in education reform

The School Portfolio Victoria. L Bernhardt, 2014-05-22 A school portfolio is the most effective way to ensure your school's success at systemic reform Extensively tested it is a non threatening self assessment tool which exhibits a school's goals achievements and vision for improvement This book will show you how to develop a school portfolio tailored to your particular school and vision Transforming America's Schools John Murphy,Jeffry Schiller,1995 The main theme of this text is that school improvement is difficult but with appropriate knowledge and firm leadership school administrators can make the difference It should be of interest to principals students in education administration and concerned members of the public Resources in Education ,2000-04 Journal of School Leadership ,2001 International Journal of Educational Reform ,1998 APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , Mobilizing Resources for District-wide Middle-grades Reform Holly Hatch,Kathryn Ann Hytten,1997 Improving Schools Wayne K. Hoy,Michael DiPaola,2008-04-01 Improving Schools Studies in Leadership and Culture is the seventh in a series on research and theory dedicated to advancing our understanding of schools through empirical study and theoretical analysis This book is organized around two broad concepts leadership and culture which have important implications for improving schools The book begins with an analysis of the saliency of trust in the culture of schools In the first chapter Patrick Forsyth s review of the consequences of school trust sets the tone for seeking and developing school cultures that enhance high academic performance of students The investigation of school trust is traced over several decades at four research universities as scholars at each institution conceptualized refined and examined the consequences of school trust It seems fair to conclude that a school culture that is anchored in values and norms of faculty trusting students and parents facilitates high academic achievement and positive outcomes Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors ,1990 4th 7th eds contain a special chapter on The role and function of the thesaurus in education by Frederick Goodman Effective Educational Leadership Nigel Bennett,Megan Crawford,Marion Cartwright,2003-01-14 This work is for providers and students of postgraduate level courses in educational management for leadership development and provision for headteacher induction programmes Thrust for Educational Leadership ,1995 The Executive Educator ,1992 Principals for Our Changing Schools Scott D. Thomson,1993 Developed by the National Policy Board for Educational Administration this best selling guide is a proven training tool for principals at all levels of education The book divides principal tasks expectations and responsibilities into 21 principalship domains The domains correlate with the NCATE Curriculum Guidelines for Educational Leadership and the domain skills and content also match up with the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium ISLLe Standards This basic handbook explains in detail what principals need to know and be able to do for successful school administration the skill areas that are the cornerstone of standards based training for school principals Comprehensive Administration of Special Education Richard S.
