Rethinking Resistance Revolt And Violence In African History African Dynamics :

Rethinking Resistance Jon Abbink, Klaas van Walraven, Mirjam de Bruijn, 2003-01-01 Revolts and violence have always been features of African history but questions frequently still remain as to what and who the targets of resistance were This volume reviews the subject of resistance in the light of current scholarly thought Were political forms of resistance directed at the imposition or ending of colonial rule or at African elites profiting from the onset of capitalist relations of production Or did they have purely sociological or religious roots With contributions from historians anthropologists and political scientists Rethinking Resistance analyzes the concepts of resistance violence and ideological imagination and has chapters on uprisings and revolts in nineteenth century pre colonial societies and early colonial Africa post colonial rebellions and more recent and contemporary conflicts African Agency and European Colonialism Femi James Kolapo, Kwabena O. Akurang-Parry, 2007

This work provides insights into important moments in the European colonization project in Africa and into structural intersections between the active agents of colonialism and the different layers of Africa's socio political structures It reveals the indispensability of the African peoples their pre colonial establishments and knowledge of the colonial encounter The book also clarifies the significant impact that African people's choices chances mistakes and internal politics had in structuring their colonial experience and European dominance Colonized Africans and colonizing Europeans had to negotiate the nature of their relationship the grid nexus and hierarchy of colonial power and authority were constantly under construction deconstruction and reconstruction African Agency and European Colonialism expounds upon these beclouded features of Africa's engagement of colonialism It is appropriate for students scholars political analysts sociologists and other professionals interested in the social and political history of Africa Book jacket Good Works in 1 Peter Travis B.

Williams, 2014-10-08 Drawing on recent insights from postcolonial theory and social psychology Travis B Williams seeks to diagnose the social strategy of good works in 1 Peter by examining how the persistent admonition to do good is intended to be an appropriate response to social conflict Challenging the modern consensus which interprets the epistle's good works language as an attempt to accommodate Greco Roman society and thereby to lessen social hostility the author demonstrates that the exhortation to do good envisages a pattern of conduct which stands opposed to popular values The Petrine author appropriates terminology that was commonly associated with wealth and social privilege and reinscribes it with a new meaning in order to provide his marginalized readers with an alternative vision of reality one in which the honor and approval so valued in society is finally available to them The good works theme thus articulates a competing discourse which challenges dominant social structures and the hegemonic ideology which underlies them African Parliaments M. Salih, 2005-12-10 This book offers in depth analysis of parliamentary development set in a historical context informed by Africa's post 1990s democratic resurgence In particular it illustrates how African parliaments are caught between the twin processes of being part of the machinery of government while exercising the function of holding government accountable

African and Asian Studies ,2003 Music as Instrument of Diversity and Unity Minette Mans,2003 This report explores the interface between recent socio political changes in Namibia and the way they are reflected in emergent musical practices and identities within the country The potential tension between unity and diversity is investigated within musical landscapes in traditional and contemporary frames Sadly diversity is often seen to be the precursor of divisiveness rather than a product of human creativity and ingenuity Based on a decade of field research undertaken mainly in the north and central areas of Namibia since 1993 this report poses questions about fundamental purposes of music making and the conscious response of people to the contemporary Namibian socio political situation It provides a broad overview of music emanating from different cultural practices in Namibia and relates this to the State s political strategies for ensuring unity and nation building through policy making education and broadcast media The changes that occur in musical practices are seen as strategic cultural choices and ongoing identity formation Rebels and Legitimacy Isabelle Duyvesteyn,2018-10-29 Legitimacy is generally a term that is associated with the state The term surfaces when there are problems with state legitimacy when it is lacking or absent This present volume attempts to think through the relevance of the concept of legitimacy for other political actors than the state Rebel groups in the shape of insurgents terrorists warlords and guerrillas are all engaged in a process of claim making as legitimate actors representing certain political agendas and constituencies We are interested in dissecting the processes of the emergence of legitimacy in contexts of disorder and conflict Legitimacy is not only a belief or belief system that informs social action but it is also a practice with a repertoire of legitimacy claiming reinforcing copying and emulating elements Governance provision is an important legitimacy generating activity just as it has been in the formation of states The volume however points out that there are many more aspects to legitimacy that deserve attention The contributors draw on a wide variety of cases and in depth investigation to bring forward individual and micro level dynamics related to legitimacy claims as well as bringing forward the often times problematic role of external actors when it comes to legitimacy and illegitimacy dynamics The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of Small Wars Insurgencies

Crisis and Creativity Dick Foeken,Piet Konings,2006-04-01 At times of economic and political crisis in Sub Saharan Africa urban dwellers display a large degree of creativity in their survival strategies by developing social networks and constructing imaginative and original practices and ideas This volume views the urban neighbourhood from two different perspectives and explores the importance of these creative processes The first approach considers the neighbourhood as a geographical domain in which people are engaged in a variety of activities to advance their material and immaterial well being making use of their wealth of opportunities assets and diverse forms of natural physical financial human and social capital The second angle sees the neighbourhood as not necessarily geographically located or bounded but as having been created and defined by human beings These neighbourhoods may take on the form of self help organizations associations or churches or may be based on gender generational ethnic or occupational identities As the contributions from all over Sub

Saharan Africa show the two approaches do not necessarily exclude each other Journal of Religion in Africa ,1967

Situating Globality Wim van Binsbergen,Rijk van Dijk,2004-03-01 Situating Globality challenges the dominant view that globalization is a primary threat to African societies and economies It explores how these societies are appropriating elements of the emerging global culture arguing the significance of this appropriation in local struggles the expression of critical thinking ideologies and ritual styles of behaviour Combining an interest for micro level processes of situating the multifaceted process of globality with the exploration of reflexivity creativity and the production of knowledge Situating Globality straddles the divide between anthropological and philosophical representations of Africa in the new world order The first section examines philosophical issues relating to the production of knowledge in and about Africa from a globalizing perspective while the other sections include case studies showing how these processes are accommodated in everyday life

Vanguard or Vandals Jon Abbink,2021-11-29 This book contains a range of original studies on one of the major challenges in Africa today the controversial role of youth in politics conflict and rebellious movements The issue is not only the drafting of child soldiers into insurgent armies or predatory militias as in Somalia Sierra Leone or Congo but more generally that of the problematic insertion of large numbers of young people in the socio economic and political order of post colonial Africa Even educated youths are being confronted with a lack of opportunities blocked social mobility and despair about the future Many of the political antagonisms and conflicts in which youths are involved do not only exist at the discursive level but are being produced by current demographic and socio political contradictions in Africa African youth while forming a numerical majority largely feel excluded from power are socio economically marginalized and thwarted in their ambitions They have little access to representative positions or political power which is making for a politically volatile situation in many African countries The authors address several case studies from across Africa the Mungiki movement in Kenya youth agency in southern Sudan in times of war the challenges of re integrating youthful ex combatants in Sierra Leone and street children in Togo A common aim is to try to explain why patterns of generational conflict and violent response among younger age groups in Africa are showing such a remarkably uneven spread across the continent and to advance the comparative study of youth and generational conflict beyond mere description of the varied empirical cases African Sociological Review ,2002

Kongo in the Age of Empire, 1860-1913 Jelmer Vos,2015 An insightful look at the onset of colonialism in Central Africa from economic religious and political perspectives examining the ultimately tragic participation of African elites in colonial rule The Oxford Handbook of the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón,2021 This Handbook provides a multidimensional and interdisciplinary assessment of the West African Sahel region in all of its complexity African Studies Abstracts ,2002 Resistance and Colonialism Nuno Domingos,Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo,Ricardo

Roque,2019-08-01 This volume offers a critical re examination of colonial and anti colonial resistance imageries and practices in imperial history It offers a fresh critique of both pejorative and celebratory readings of insurgent peoples and it seeks to revitalize the study of resistance as an analytical field in the comparative history of Western colonialisms It explores how to read and de code these issues in archival documents and how to conjugate documental approaches with oral history indigenous memories and international histories of empire The topics explored include runaway slaves and slave rebellions mutiny and banditry memories and practices of guerrilla and liberation diplomatic negotiations and cross border confrontations theft collaboration and even the subversive effects of nature in colonial projects of labor exploitation

From Sudan to South Sudan Irit Back,2020-06-22 Irit Back's book From Sudan to South Sudan IGAD and the Role of Regional Mediation in Africa comprehensively analyses the full achievements shortcomings and implications of IGAD Intergovernmental Authority on Development mediation efforts in Sudan and South Sudan IGAD's active mediation was a primary force behind the 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA between the south and the north that eventually resulted in South Sudan's declaration of independence in 2011 The euphoria of this historic achievement was however almost immediately overshadowed by internal strife which has since 2013 escalated to a large scale conflict in the new born nation that demanded IGAD's renewed mediation efforts The book offers readers new insights and perspectives to apply when seeking to develop a more balanced understanding of Africa's contemporary conflicts and the efforts to resolve them More specifically the book will also help readers to better comprehend the potential role of regional mediation in East Africa a region with a turbulent history in the post Cold War era

Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below Jasper Abembia Ayelazuno,2018-08-15 As bearers of their own emancipation the political agency of the subaltern classes is a vexed question a time honoured one at that Why do the subalterns endure injustices without revolting most of the time but revolt sometimes against some injustices The euphoria of globalisation from below this book argues skirts responsibility of addressing this question by presuming a groundswell of resistance across the world against neoliberal globalisation In contrast to this oeuvre Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below engages this question squarely by using the socio historical approach to explain why the subalterns resist neoliberal globalisation in Bolivia and not in Ghana The author urges scholars of critical political economy to pay greater attention to why the subalterns resist rather than how they resist or what the ideal end of their resistance should be Such refocusing of the research and political lens will yield a more realistic picture of what is politically possible in the social context of peripheral capitalism regarding an anti capitalist revolution The author further argues that this refocusing will cure many of the romantic anti capitalist claims and banal wishful thinking of a socialist revolution in peripheral capitalist regions such as Latin American The Middle East and North Africa MENA and Sub Saharan Africa Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics neoliberalism globalisation political economy and subaltern politics

Strength Beyond Structure Mirjam De Bruijn,Rijk Van Dijk,Jan Bart Gewald,2007 Drawing on a wide range of historical and anthropological case studies from various parts of Africa this anthology provides an understanding of the importance of agency in processes of social transformation especially in the context of crisis and structural constraint Navigating Nationality Johannes Kögel, 2024-01-18 In recounting their migration journey references to nationality pervade the narratives of Zimbabweans in South Africa. Given the challenges many migrants confront based on their nationality, this presents a seeming paradox. This qualitative interview study conducted with Zimbabwean migrants in two areas of Cape Town, Observatory and Dunoon, aims to elucidate the nuances of national self-descriptions in a demanding environment. Identifying as Zimbabwean serves as a sanctuary and a retreat where alternative identifications often prove transient. Embracing Zimbabweanness fosters an affirmative and positive self-perception surpassing the limitations of other collective self-descriptions. Rather than preemptively characterizing a nationalist demeanour, the articulation of national self-description emerges as a strategic tool to navigate experiences of hostility and discrimination while also asserting legitimate claims to equal opportunities. In this way, nationality takes a trajectory that diverges from conventional notions of nationality and the ones of the nation-state or citizenship as per Northern theory, contributing to alternative conceptualizations within the framework of the Global South.
