Rethinking School Improvement Research Craft And Concept:

Rethinking School Improvement Ann Lieberman,1984 New Ideas for Effective School Improvement William Ramsay,E. Eugene Clark,1990 This book develops an approach to school development which is contextual in that it considers both the larger social structure of which the school is a part and those special features of schools themselves which impact upon the possibilities for their improvement The book derives from a eight year longitudinal study of school evaluation at St Mary s College a Catholic girls school in Tasmania It builds upon and provides a practical exploration of such recent developments as Straratt and Caldwell s work on educational vision the role of evaluation in measuring the extent to which a school s vision has become reality the effective implementation and management of change and Coleman and Hoffer s notion of social capital and the importance of school community networks in effective education Developing a Quality Curriculum Allan A. Glatthorn,2004-02-17 n this concise well organized guide to developing high quality school curricula Glatthorn blends sound research initiatives and trends with his practical experience as a curriculum consultant to more than one hundred school systems Glatthorn believes that shared leadership and responsibility are essential to achieve quality Curriculum development should involve a collaborative process that includes input from the state district leaders school administrators classroom teachers and parents From Organizing and Planning for Curriculum Work to Conducting a Curriculum Audit to Ensure Quality Developing a Quality Curriculum is a valuable resource for understanding and practicing sound curriculum development Key Concepts for Understanding Curriculum: Planning, management, and ideology Colin J. Marsh,1997 Each chapter of this book is devoted to a separate concept which is analyzed in terms of its major features Follow up questions at the end of each chapter are designed to challenge the reader to reflect further on the specific issues raised Research on Teacher Thinking (RLE Edu N) James Calderhead,Pam Denicolo,Christopher Day,2012-05-04 This is a companion volume to the editors Insights into Teachers Thinking and Practice Falmer Press 1999 and seeks to carry the discussion on further illustrating that there is a continuing intensity of thought activity and debate on how to conceptualise research on teacher thinking and thus generate knowledge for further understanding and action The ethical questions on undertaking research on the inner lives of teachers remain unresolved The international team present chapters which investigate the relationship between the researcher and the researched and the relevance and role of research in teacher development The papers are not presented as best practice for such definitions would be inevitably value laden Rather they are indications and anticipations of key areas for the development of understanding of teachers thinking and actions in the 1990s Key Concepts for Understanding the Curriculum Colin J. Marsh,2018-10-24 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Handbook of Primary Education in Europe (1989) Maurice Galton,Blyth Alan,2018-02-06 Published in 1989 in conjunction with the Council of Europe this book is a major source of reference for those interested in the comparative study of primary education in Europe Whilst there is much material available at secondary level there is little information about the organisation and practice of primary education in different European countries This book based on reports and case studies collected by the Council of Europe as part of its five year project Innovation in Primary Education in Europe remedies this providing an essential resource in the area Divided into six sections each contributed to by member state of the Council of Europe this book covers topics including organisation policy and practice professionalism in primary school teachers and innovation in primary education
