Ageing Labour Forces Philip Taylor,2008-01-01 Philip Taylor has produced an important and excellent edited collection on a topic of immediate and ongoing relevance The case studies presented in this collection are highly accessible and rich in detail and provide comprehensive and interesting analyses of ageing labour forces The book challenges myths and oft accepted statements made by policy makers and other commentators about population ageing older workers position in the labour market and in workplaces and social supports for this segment of the labour force In addition the volume demonstrates the strength of the case study methodology in helping us to better understand social structures and relations Of particular value is that the contributions are from researchers from varied disciplines across advanced industrialized countries this collection is highly valuable for policy makers employers unionists and academics and should not be ignored Vivian Shalla Labour LeTravail This book makes an important contribution to the policy debate about age and the workforce and will be valuable both to academic researchers interested in the labour market and ageing policy and to

policymakers who wish to understand the diversity of national approaches to a shared agenda This book sheds new light on the differences between countries approaches to the common policy issues and highlights some of the issues which policy needs to address Taylor s overarching argument that we should be cautious about making over positive assumptions about the benefits of extending working life is timely Stephen McNair Ageing and Society The book is extremely valuable for policy makers labour market and welfare pensions experts and the social partners because it contains a comprehensive analysis of the legal institutional welfare and employment policy developments over the past few decades in the eight countries It offers policy guidance and examples of good practices for dealing with an ageing workforce but also showing the adverse effects of well intentioned policies and legislation Hedva Sarfati Relations Industrielles Industrial Relations Ageing Labour Forces is a provocative work which will appeal to academics and researches interested in work ageing and public policy as well as labour economics SirReadaLot org This provocative book considers the changing status of older workers the evolution of public policy on age and work and the behaviour of employers It attempts to answer the critical question in an ageing society can older workers look forward to the prospect of longer working lives with choice and security and make successful transitions to retirement Ageing Labour Forces challenges the current stance of many governments and observers concerning policies to extend working lives It utilises perspectives and case studies from public policy employment policy and the attitudes and behaviour of older people Philip Taylor argues that older workers have been at the forefront of industrialized society s efforts to respond to the crisis facing social welfare systems and the economic threats associated with population ageing Their involvement has forced the restructuring of economies adjustments to social welfare systems as well as redefinitions to the actual concept of old age Containing contributions from leading researchers in a number of countries this work will appeal to academics and researchers interested in work ageing and public policy as well as labour economics

Francis Rattenbury and British Columbia Anthony A. Barrett, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 1983-01-01 Yorkshire born Francis Mawson Rattenbury 1867 1935 emigrated to British Columbia as a young architect in 1892 Within months of his arrival in Victoria he launched his brilliant if abbreviated career by winning an international competition to design the legislative buildings While his life was marred by controversy scandal and in the end tragedy Rattenbury s architecture had an enduring impact on the Canadian landscape and his commercial ventures were important to the economic development of the West Richly illustrated with over 200 drawings and photographs Francis Rattenbury and British Columbia is the first major critical study of a Canadian architect in the context of his times Using unpublished primary sources including his recently discovered private letters the authors document Rattenbury s professional career and the evolution of his architectural style Detailed descriptions are given of some of his most famous projects notably the legislative buildings and the Empress Hotel in Victoria Besides working on a number of government commissions Rattenbury became chief architect for the Canadian Pacific Railway and designed chateau like buildings for C P R hotels in the Rockies Vancouver and Victoria

Other projects such as the Vancouver and Nanaimo Courthouses and Bank of Montreal branches set the pattern for institutional architecture in British Columbia His buildings not only drew attention to the growing importance of the province but also lent dignity and character to its major centres Filled with the vigour and confidence of the imperial age Rattenbury initiated a number of commercial ventures These included the founding of a transportation system to the Yukon goldfields and extensive land speculations As the authors point out these investments were perhaps not undertaken solely for monetary gain but reflected Rattenbury s firm belief in the future of British Columbia and his desire to play an active role in its growth Unfortunately his entrepreneurial adventures involved heavy financial losses among which were ruinous lawsuits involving the provincial government This pioneering work on Western Canadian architecture will serve as a valuable design source for both the specialist and lay reader It also includes an important account of the part played by major Canadian companies and government patronage in the development of British Columbia This professional biography reveals new facets of Rattenbury s life and character which have been the subject of both public and literary controversy Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada. Teacher Certification and the Professional Status of Teaching in North America Peter P. Grimmett,Jon C. Young,Claude Lessard,2012-12-01 This book locates recent developments in teacher certification in North America within a broader international policy context characterized as hegemonic neo liberalism wherein economic rationalism has begun to trump professional judgment We focus on teacher certification because it addresses fundamental questions about who will teach what are the required minimum levels of competence and who will make those decisions Such questions are central to teaching constituting a new battleground for education in North America Two ideas economic rationalism and professionalization have become pivotal to education policy Economic rationalism finds its expression in a free market ideology Professionalization has two meanings professionalizing the practice of teaching constructing a professional knowledge base and professionalizing the status of teaching through links with universities and self regulation These ideas contestation varies by setting In the USA neo liberalism has attacked professional knowledge questioning its scientific veracity Professionalization advocates claim that the neo liberalist aim is to undermine teaching as a profession In Canada neo liberalist critics are heard but have limited impact on policy Professionalization has emphasized teachers pedagogical development and a valuing of the field s input into teacher preparation Neo liberalist economic rationalism plays itself out overtly in the USA as de regulation in Canada it lies embedded within labor mobility agreements In the USA professionalization highlights professionalism in practice in Canada the governance of teaching This book explores how economic rationalism is using labor mobility agreements in Canada as a covert operation analogous to de regulation in the USA to assert its dominance in the battle to de professionalize teaching in North America Official Reports of the Debates of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada.
