Fifty-two stories for girls, by T. Archer [and others] ed. by A.H. Miles Alfred Henry Miles, 1889 A History of the Mishnaic Law of Purities, Part 12 Jacob Neusner, 2007-04-01 The history of Jews from the period of the Second Temple to the rise of Islam From A History of the Mishnaic Law of Appointed Times Part 1 This volume introduces the sources of Judaism in late antiquity to scholars in adjacent fields such as the study of the Old and New Testaments Ancient History the ancient Near East and the history of religion In two volumes leading American Israeli and European specialists in the history literature theology and archaeology of Judaism offer factual answers to the two questions that the study of any religion in ancient times must raise The first is what are the sources written and in material culture that inform us about that religion The second is how have we to understand those sources in reconstructing the history of various Judaic systems in antiquity The chapters set forth in simple statements intelligible to non specialists the facts which the sources provide Because of the nature of the subject and acute interest in it the specialists also raise some questions particular to the study of Judaism dealing with its historical relationship with nascent Christianity in New Testament times The work forms the starting point for the study of all the principal questions concerning Judaism in late antiquity and sets forth the most current critical results of scholarship New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal, 1909 The Braided Dream Randolph Paul Runyon, 2021-12-14 Robert Penn Warren s reputation as a poet though always considerable has soared in the last decade as indicated by his recent selection as America s first poet laureate The Braided Dream is one of the first book length studies of the poetry that has led to Warren's recent rise to eminence and the first to consider his final collection Altitudes and Extensions. In a communicable jargon-free style that will appeal to the nonacademic reader as well as the serious scholar, Randolph Paul Runyon provides a detailed and illuminating guide to a body of poetry that despite its greatness has until now seemed resistant to full understanding. Every poem of Warren's last four sequences Now and Then, Being Here, Rumor, Verified, and Altitudes and Extensions is given a close reading with a precise laying out of words, phrases, and recurring images that not only enrich the texture of the poetry but are themselves the texture. Runyon demonstrates the relevance of Freud's concept of the dream work of the unconscious to a reading of this tightly interwoven poetry. He shows how Warren's poems assume additional meanings by the poet's very arrangement of them, deepening his thesis by arguing that poems eat poems as each reuses and reconceptualizes the imagery of its predecessor frequently with ironic or parodic effect.
