Sacramentality Of Marriage In A Dalit Context:

Sacramentality of Marriage in a Dalit Context James Amakatt, 2000 The central theme of this work is Sacrament of Marriage While it is dealt with in part II the context is presented in part I rendering flesh and blood to the theme Part III draws certain conclusions besides pointing towards future possibilities Though this work presents the context of the sacrament of marriage as lived and experienced in the diocese of Patna It is not hard to realise that it is relevant to wider areas especially in North India A graphic picture of the gradual process of missionary activities and the slow process of faith to the present day along with the findings of a survey occupies an appropriate place in this work The reader of this work is led through the evolution of Hindu ethos and dogma on marriage Indian Books in Print, 2003 Educational Rehabilitation of Rag-picker Children in Seemapuri Neeti Mahanti, 2005 Jigyansu Triba Research Centre Implemented a very successful and challenging project for Educational and Economic Rehabilitation of Rag Picker Children in the New Seemapuri Colony of Delhi for the past ten years with financial sponsorship from ILO India Office and Stitching Kinder Postzegels Netherlands JTRC could help 5000 Rag Picker Children and 500 Young People in the Skill Development Unit in Educational Rehabilitation and Capacity Building through Skill Development The Politics of Belonging in Contemporary India Kaustav Chakraborty, 2019-07-02 This volume looks at the emerging forms of intimacies in contemporary India Drawing on rigorous academic research and pop culture phenomena the volume Brings together themes of nationhood motherhood disability masculinity ethnicity kinship and sexuality and attempts to understand them within a more complex web of issues related to space social justice marginality and communication Focuses on the struggles for intimacy by the disabled queer Dalit and other subalterns as well as people with non human intimacies to propose an alternative theory of the politics of belonging Explores the role of social and new media in understanding and negotiating intimacies and anxieties Comprehensive and thought provoking this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of political studies sociology sexuality and gender studies women's studies cultural studies and minority studies American Book Publishing Record, 2002 The Christ who Embraces Jacob Joseph, 2024-10-28 Jacob Joseph's book The Christ who Embraces An Orthodox Theology of Margins explores the intersection of Orthodox Christian mission and caste dynamics among St Thomas Syrian Orthodox Christians in India It defines a liturgical touch or embrace in the context of untouchability where people identify as equal without discrimination reflecting the inseparable unity of Christ's transcendental divine and immanent human nature Tagore and Nationalism K. L. Tuteja, Kaustav Chakraborty, 2017-03-15 This volume brings together eminent Tagore scholars and younger writers to revisit the concepts of nation nationalism identity and selfhood civilization culture and homeland in Tagore's writings As these ideas take up the centre stage of politics in the subcontinent as also elsewhere in the world in the 21st century it becomes extremely relevant to revisit his works in this context Tagore's ambivalence towards nationalism as an ideology was apparent in the responses in his discussions with Indians and non Indians alike Tagore developed the concept of syncretic civilization as a basis of nationalist civilizational unity where society was central unlike the European model of state centric civilization However as the subterranean tensions of communalism became clear in the early 20th century Tagore reflexively critiqued his own political position in society He thus emerged as the critic of the nation state and in this he shared his deep unease with other thinkers like Romain Rolland and Albert Einstein This volume for the first time covers the socio political historical literary and cultural concerns relating to Tagore s efforts towards the de colonization of the Self The volume begins with various perspectives on Tagore s ambivalence about nationalism It encompasses critical examinations of Tagore s literary works and other art forms as well as adaptations of his works on film It also reads Tagore s nationalism in a comparative mode with contemporary thinkers in India and abroad who were engaged in similar debates

Gestures of God Geoffrey Rowell, Christine Hall, 2004-06-22 This important new collection of essays on a topic of vital importance is by a group of scholars from ten countries from a wide range of Christian traditions East and West and from various academic disciplines What has happened to sacramentality in an age which is on the one hand visual and on the other culturally cast adrift from the traditional symbolic universe in which sacramental theology was naturally at home This book is not just confined to a discussion of Eucharistic theology It examines both the historical roots of sacramentality the concept of a sacral person ways in which sacramentality may be re envisioned and the flourishing today of churches of a largely non sacramental style in an age which is increasingly visual rather than verbal The vital importance of the subject of this book is confirmed by the distinction of the contributors David Brown Professor of Theology at Durham University Timothy Jenkins Cambridge Bishop Geoffrey Rowell Oxford Jeremy Begbie St Andrews and Cambridge Ann Loades Durham David N Power Catholic University of America Sven Erik Brodd Uppsala Peter Bouteneff St Vladimir s Seminary New York and Susan A Ross Loyola University Chicago

Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1998 Broken Lives M. Rita Rozario, 2000 Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology Rasiah S. Sugirtharajah, 1994 The most important emerging themes and voices engaged in Asian Christian theology today Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology provides the latest extension of interpretive trends reflected in earlier volumes now unavailable such as the classic Living Theology in Asia Arranged thematically Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology first captures the ongoing dialogue between the dominant theologies of Asia and the continent's subalterns: women, tribals, and untouchables such as Indian dalits and Japanese burakumin. These essayists, including Kuribayashi Teruo, Arvind P. Nirmal, Nirmal Minz, and Chung Hyun Kyung, share the experience of those people who are treated as invisible non-entities who recover self-identity and self-validation in theological expression. The next group of essayists, among them Peter K. H. Lee, Choi Man Ja, Jyoti Sahi, Archie Lee, Chi Chung, and Samuel Rayan, provide a wealth of stunning interpretive data in the uniquely Asian method of extra-textual hermeneutics. This perspective weaves Asian literary and non-literary resources into theology. Third, Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology offers examples of the narrative theology that is also a cultural outgrowth of Asia, including writings by Aloysius Pieris, Kwok Pui Lan, M. M. Thomas, Astrid Lobo Gajiwala, and Stanley J. Samartha. Their highly personal stories directly integrate lived experience with theology, which, as Sugirtharajah points out, is a prerequisite for any vibrant dynamic theology. Frontiers in Asian Christian Theology concludes with essays that document some crucial contemporary issues for Asian theology. These include Wang Hsien Chi on Taiwanese homeland theology, Noh Jung Sun on Korean reunification, Felix Wilfred on human rights, Samuel Rayan on the environmental crisis, and Tissa Balasuriya on the responsibilities of the theologian in contexts of ethnic conflict.
