will try to do this by using not only scripture but by using our history and present social and economic conditions In this I will try to show the correlation between how Jesus taught and his concept of Christianity and how to advance social and economic conditions When you read the teachings of Jesus Christ in the New Testament you will find the highest degree of moral values ethics and civility Everything about the teachings in the New Testament is set up to propel Christians to work with love compassion understanding empathy and equality so that society can advance together Being a Christian is a commitment of dedication to living a life defined by the love of Jesus Christ and his sacrifice to the well being and salvation of every person who has ever lived Christianity is a higher level of maturity and dedication of responsibility to living a life free of the destructive influences of this world This is so that you can better use your time and resources to helping and guiding others that are in need That is what being a Christian is all about New-Church Messenger ,1929
