Selected Letters Marcel Proust:

Marcel Proust, Selected Letters: 1904-1909 Marcel Proust, 1983 In 1904 while still working on his translations of Ruskin Marcel Proust wrote to Maurice Barrès I still have two Ruskins to do and after that I shall try to translate my own poor soul if it doesn't die in the meantime Within a few years Proust would begin this translation of his own poor soul the monumental Remembrance of Things Past one of the great literary works of the 20th century In this volume of Proust's collected letters the reader is carried inside this pivotal moment in a great writer's life In a letter to Louis d'Albufera he lists the projects he has in hand a study on the nobility a Parisian novel an essay on Sainte Beuve and Flaubert an essay on Women an essay on Pederasty not easy to publish a study on stained glass windows a study on tombstones a study on the novel all subjects that eventually found their way into Remembrance of Things Past The letters are intriguing for what they say about the work but they also offer an intimate portrait of the man the sometime invalid recluse sometime socialite This long awaited volume will be welcomed by scholars and general readers alike The letters offer a special insight into the man and his art during a crucial period and they are as delightful to read as beautifully crafted witty and poignant as his fiction Marcel Proust, Selected Letters Marcel Proust, 1989

Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth, 2024-06-04 In Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth analyzes and theorizes the presence and role of songs in Marcel Proust's novel la recherche du temps perdu In Search of Lost Time Instead of focusing on instrumental music and large scale forms such as symphonies and opera as is common in Proust musical studies Rushworth argues for the centrality of songs and lyrics in Proust's opus Her work analyzes the ways in which the author inserted songs at key turning points in his novel and how he drew inspiration from contemporary composers and theorists of song Rushworth presents detailed readings of five moments of song in la recherche du temps perdu highlighting the songs significance by paying close attention to their lyrics music composers and histories Rushworth interprets these episodes through theoretical reflections on song and voice drawing particularly from the works of Reynaldo Hahn and Roland Barthes She argues that songs in Proust's novel are connected and resonate with one another across the different volumes yet also shows how song for Proust is a solo amateur and intimate affair In addition she points to Proust's juxtapositions of songs with meditations on the notion of mauvaise musique bad music to demonstrate the existence of a blurred boundary between songs that are popular and songs that are art According to Rushworth a song for Proust has a special relation to repetition and memory due to its typical brevity and that song itself becomes a mode of resistance in la Recherche especially on the part of characters in the face of family and familial expectations She also defines the songs in Proust's novel as songs of farewell noting that to sing farewell is a means to resist the very parting that is being expressed and demonstrates how songs in formal terms resist the forward impetus of narrative
