Selected Poems 1972 199:

On James Tate Brian Henry, 2004 The first critical collection on the work of one of the most influential yet misunderstood American poets working today This Mad "instead" Arthur Michael Saltzman, 2000 Saltzman reveals figuration to be both inevitable and inevitably unreliable and he illustrates how these writers treat this condition not as an impasse but as a point of departure indeed as an artistic mandate and creative opportunity On Louis Simpson Hank Lazer, 1988 These essays on Simpson's poetry provide a commentary on poetics aesthetics and literary politics First Pages Giancarlo Maiorino, 2010-11 Titology a term first coined in 1977 by literary critic Harry Levin is the field of literary studies that focuses on the significance of a title in establishing the thematic developments of the pages that follow While the term has been used in the literary community for thirty years this book presents for the first time a thoroughly developed theoretical discussion on the significance of the title as a foundation for scholarly criticism Though Maiorino acknowledges that many titles are superficial and indexical there exists a separate and more complex class of titles that do much more than simply decorate a book's spine To prove this argument Maiorino analyzes a wide range of examples from the modern era through high modernism to postmodernism with writings spanning the globe from Spain and France to Germany and America By examining works such as Essais The Waste Land Ulysses and Don Quixote First Pages proves the power of the title to connect the reader to the thematic cultural and literary context of the writing as a whole Much like a facade to a building the title page serves as the frontispiece of literature a sign that offers perspective and demands interpretation The Gay[Grey] Moose D.M.R. Bentley, 1992-01-01 The Gay Grey Moose is a collection of essays presenting a comprehensive view of English poetry in Canada from the early colonial period to the Post Modern era From a wide range of poets this book provides fresh contexts for viewing and discussing three centuries of English Canadian poetry Both national and regional in its orientation it seeks to discover the relationship between poetry and landscape in a poetic continuity that stretches from the late 17th century to the present Text and Drugs and Rock 'n' Roll Simon Warner, 2013-03-14 Text and Drugs and Rock n Roll explores the interaction between two of the most powerful socio cultural movements in the post war years the literary forces of the Beat Generation and the musical energies of rock and its attendant culture Simon Warner examines the interweaving strands seeded by the poet novelists Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and others in the 1940s and 1950s and cultivated by most of the major rock figures who emerged after 1960 Bob Dylan the Beatles Bowie the Clash and Kurt Cobain to name just a few This fascinating cultural history delves into a wide range of issues Was rock culture the natural heir to the activities of the Beats Were the hippies the Beats of the 1960s What attitude did the Beat writers have towards musical forms and particularly rock music How did literary works shape the consciousness of leading rock music makers and their followers Why did Beat literature retain its cultural potency with later rock musicians who rejected hippie values How did rock musicians use the material of Beat literature in their own work How did Beat figures become embroiled in the process of rock creativity These questions are addressed through a number of approaches the influence of drugs the relevance of politics the effect of religious and spiritual pursuits the rise of the counter culture the issue of sub cultures and their construction and so on The result is a highly readable history of the innumerable links between two of the most revolutionary artistic movements of the last 60 years [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
