Lovers and Beloveds Gary Richards,2007-05-01 A challenge to traditional criticism this engaging study demonstrates that issues of sexuality and same sex desire in particular were of central importance in the literary production of the Southern Renaissance Especially during the end of that period approximately the 1940s and 1950s the national literary establishment tacitly designated the South as an allowable setting for fictionalized deviancy thus permitting southern writers tremendous freedom to explore sexual otherness In Lovers and Beloveds Gary Richards draws on contemporary theories of sexuality in reading the fiction of six writers of the era who accepted that potentially pejorative characterization as an opportunity Truman Capote William Goyen Harper Lee Carson McCullers Lillian Smith and Richard Wright Richards skillfully juxtaposes forgotten texts by those writers with canonical works to identify the complex narratives of same sex desire In their novels and stories the authors consistently reimagine gender roles centralize homoeroticism and probe its relationship with class race biological sex and southern identity This is the first book to assess the significance of same sex desire in a broad range of southern texts making a crucial contribution to the study of both literature and sexuality Half a Look of Cain

William Goyen,1998-09 I was twenty when I followed away from my town a trapeze family aerialists a group of beautiful winged people mother father son and daughter They were the Ishbels Chris whose leg is injured and his lover Stella with whom he lives in a ruined abandoned house Chris s male nurse Marvello the circus aerialist a lighthouse keeper a flagpole sitter in small town America these are the creatures of William Goyen s visionary fable of love lust and loneliness Half a Look of Cain A Fantastical Narrative was written in the 1950s and early 1960s and is now being published for the first time Part fable and part rhapsodic exploration of desire and loss Half a Look of Cain bears Goyen s unmistakable artistic signature on every page Too far ahead of its time in its swirling visionary structure this novel was rejected by Goyen s first publisher as not sufficiently commercial and remained unpublished despite extensive revisions The novel is shaped as a group of medallions a series of related episodes It dreams of defying mortality as if living in the air like the aerialists or the flagpole sitter and of finding perfect companionship in lover and friend The novel is both a rediscovered cry against the conformity and suppressed emotions of the 1950s and a celebration of passion Reginald Gibbons has edited the novel from the author s multiple manuscripts and has contributed an illuminating afterword New Selected Journals, 1939-1995 Stephen

Spender,2012-07-03 Private faces in public places Are wiser and nicer Than public faces in private places W H Auden dedication to Stephen Spender 1932 Stephen Spender wrote almost a million words of journal entries between his September Journal in 1939 and his death in 1995 In choosing from these voluminous journals for the new edition the editors have tried to provide a picture of the various lives Spender brought together in autobiographical form The earlier 1985 edition of the Journals was overseen by the author and it privileged his thoughts about poetry his own and other people s The new edition includes the final ten years of Spender s life and provides access to the more intimate thoughts and feelings of the private man but equally documents his life as a public intellectual who played a part in shaping the European literary and intellectual culture of his age As we look back on the dramatic events of the twentieth century we find that Spender was involved in many of them the reconstruction of Germany and the construction of Europe as Unesco s first Literary Councillor the development of the cultural Cold War as editor of Encounter the founding of Israel the anti Vietnam movement in America The Journals provide a personal version of sixty turbulent years of the twentieth century hovering between diary autobiography and history Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Authors A-Z Frank

Northern Magill,1981 An examination of the development and writers of short fiction from its beginning to the present

American Short-story Writers Since World War II. Patrick Meanor,Gwen Crane,2000 Focuses on how the declining market for short story writers after World War II saw the migration of these writers to universities where they not only

continued to write but established creative writing classes that would in turn inspire and develop new generations of writers of various genres
