

The background of the entire page is an abstract, textured composition. It features a mix of vibrant blue and white, with the blue appearing in various shades from light sky blue to deep navy. The texture is reminiscent of a close-up of a rough surface, like stone or a coarse fabric, or perhaps a microscopic view of a mineral. The overall effect is dynamic and visually rich, providing a sophisticated backdrop for the text.

Social Institutions and the Politics of Recognition Tony Burns,2020-08-19 The first of three volumes this definitive study explores the politics of social institutions from the time of the ancient Greeks to the Reformation in the sixteenth century Tony Burns focuses on those civil society institutions occupying the intermediate social space which exists between the family or household on the one hand and what Hegel refers to as the strictly political state on the other Arguing that the internal affairs of social institutions are a legitimate concern for students of politics he focuses on the notion of authority together with that of an individual s station and its duties Burns discusses the work of such key thinkers as Plato Aristotle Cicero Seneca Epictetus Marcus Aurelius St Paul St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Marsilius of Padua Nicholas of Cusa Jean Bodin Charles Loyseau John Calvin Martin Luther and Gerrard Winstanley He considers what they have said about the relationship that exists between superiors in positions of authority and their subordinates within hierarchical social institutions

Between Babasaheb and Mahatma Hulas Singh,2024-10-16 This book is a critical comparative study of Jotirao Phule and Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar modern India s two most prominent dalit leaders Although they were not close contemporaries they came to construct a firm structure of not only dalit ideology but also dalit methodology to emancipate the oppressed and depressed sections of society The book deals with their ideas in a new light highlighting aspects of convergence and contrast in their respective approach to philosophy religion society and culture It argues that deep down in his philosophic orientation Phule was quintessentially closer to Gandhi than to Ambedkar The author also contends that the usage of the term dalit exclusively in the caste communitarian sense is essentially a product of post independence political appropriation rather than social evolution The book specifically brings to light the dynamics of humanism and nationalism on the one hand and that of communitarianism on the other in the context of twentieth century colonial India Notably Gandhi is brought in the narrative to complete the triumvirate Comprehensive and deeply grounded in primary research this thought provoking book will be indispensable for students and researchers of modern Indian history sociology political science political thought exclusion studies dalit and subaltern studies and South Asian studies It will also appeal to those interested in the writings of Ambedkar and Phule

Modernism Between Benjamin and Goethe Matthew Charles,2019-12-12 Widely regarded as one of the foremost cultural critics of the last century Walter Benjamin s relation to Modernism has largely been understood in the context of his reception of the aesthetic theories of Early German Romanticism and his associated interest in avant garde Surrealism But this Romantic understanding only gives half the picture Running through Benjamin s thought is also a critique of Romanticism developed in conjunction with a positive engagement with the philosophical artistic and historical writings of J W von Goethe In demonstrating the significance of these Goethean elements this book challenges the dominant understanding of Benjamin's philosophy as essentially Romantic and instead proposes that Goethe's Classicism conceived as the counterpoint to Romanticism permits a corrective to the latter's deficiencies Benjamin's Modernist concept of criticism it is argued is constituted in the movement between these polarities of Romanticism and Classicism Conversely placing Goethe's Classicism in relation to Benjamin's practice of literary criticism reveals historical tensions with Romanticism that constitute the untimely indeed it will be argued cinematic Modernism of his work Adopting a transcritical approach this book alternates between Benjamin and Goethe in relation to the experiences of colour language and technology assembling a constellation of philosophical and artistic figures between them including the writings of Kant Nietzsche Cohen Deleuze Koselleck Klages and the work of Gropius Kandinsky Klee Turner Hulme Eisenstein Tretyakov and Murnau
