Introduction to Housing Katrin B. Anacker,Andrew T. Carswell,Sarah D. Kirby,2025-06-11 This foundational text on housing tenure housing policy homelessness and housing in a global context has been thoroughly updated to reflect changes in the United States during and after the COVID 19 pandemic This third edition delves into the complexities of housing and related issues to provide a deep understanding of housing's relationship to national economic factors and housing policies. It features individual chapters authored by experts in the field offering insights into the physical, social, psychological, economic, and policy dimensions affecting the current housing landscape both in the United States and internationally while proposing solutions to the challenges presented. This book will appeal to faculty and students in a variety of housing-related courses and is an essential resource for housing researchers, policymakers, and practitioners.

The Dialectics of Urban and Architectural Boundaries in the Middle East and the Mediterranean Suzan Girginkaya Akdağ, Mine Dinçer, Meltem Vatan, Ümran Topçu, İrem Maro Kırış, 2021-06-01. This edited volume informs readers about changing norms and meanings of borders and underlines recent scenarios that shape these borders. It focuses mainly on the Mediterranean and Middle East regions through the following questions: What are the social, cultural, philosophical, political, economic, and aesthetic reasons for spatial segregation within contemporary territories and cities? In the world of globalization and networks, what are the new limitations of space? What are the alienating differences between interior and exterior, private and public, urban and rural, local and global, and real and virtual? Are spatial definitions and divisions more likely to be weakened if not totally erased by effects of globalization and mobility similar to the dissolution of borders between countries? Or are local practices and measures likely to become more apparent with emerging trends such as sustainability and identity? Authored by international scholars, all chapters are arranged under four main parts: Urban and Rural, Global and Local, Physical and Sensual, Real and Virtual. Hence, different concepts and definitions of borders along with varying methods and tools for questioning their essence in architectural and urban spaces will be introduced. For example, in the rural and urban context, environments, settlements, housing landscape, transformation, conservation, and development in the global and local context, styles, identity, universal design, sustainability, globalization and networks, mobility and migration in the physical and sensual context, design studies and methodologies, environmental psychology, aesthetic reasoning, sense of place and well-being, and in the real and virtual context, realities, tools, and communities are the main themes of the chapters. This book will be an essential source for professionals, scholars, and students of architecture and urban design with a view to understanding multidisciplinary perspectives in designing borders as well as the dialectical relationship between borders and space.

Rediscovering Women Writers of Wartime London Evelina Garay Collcutt, 2024-02-29. This book shows the war-stricken city through the eyes of five women writers whose novels vividly portray life in the Blitz. This new appraisal of their work brings to light the way in which they documented the Blitz in their fiction, highlighting the social changes which were taking place especially in the lives of women and leading to a fuller understanding of those turbulent times. The book re-evaluates the contribution of these writers to wartime literature, showing how their long-neglected novels focus on the experiences of individual women protagonists perceived in close relation to the menacing forces of war. This title will interest all those seeking to gain further knowledge of 20th-century women's writing, wartime literature, and social history as recorded in fiction.

Shelter Poverty

Michael Stone,2010-08-12 the most original and profoundly disturbing work on the critical issue of housing affordability Chester Hartman President Poverty and Race Research Action Council In Shelter Poverty Michael E Stone presents the definitive discussion of housing and social justice in the United States Challenging the conventional definition of housing affordability Stone offers original and powerful insights about the nature causes and consequences of the affordability problem and presents creative and detailed proposals for solving a problem that afflicts one third of this nation Setting the housing crisis into broad political economic and historical contexts Stone asks What is shelter poverty Why does it exist and persist and How can it be overcome Describing shelter poverty as the denial of a universal human need Stone offers a quantitative scale by which to measure it and reflects on the social and economic implications of housing affordability in this country He argues for the right to housing and presents a program for transforming a large proportion of the housing in this country from an expensive commodity into an affordable social entitlement Employing new concepts of housing ownership tenure and finance he favors social ownership in which market concepts have a useful but subordinate role in the identification of housing preferences and allocation Stone concludes that political action around shelter poverty will further the goal of achieving a truly just and democratic society that is also equitably and responsibly productive and prosperous
