British coastal scenes and his ability to evoke not just the sights but also the sounds and even the smell of the sea James Clarke Hook Juliet McMaster's lively biography of the brilliant but underappreciated Victorian painter brings the reader through Hook's rigorous training at the Royal Academy Schools his travelling studentship in Florence and Venice and his work as a historical painter to the discovery of his m-tier as a painter of contemporary rural and coastal scenes Part of the secret of Hook's success was his resolution to paint the final large canvas of his seascapes onsite braving wind and weather for which he invented an easel that was adaptable to uneven terrain McMaster's research led her to retrace the painter's footsteps to the rocky headlands and sheltered bays where over a hundred years ago Hook had set up his easel to capture the tang of sea McMaster connects Hook an academician for half a century with the major figures and movements of Victorian art including the Pre-Raphaelites John Everett Millais and Holman Hunt the etcher Samuel Palmer and the painter and sculptor G.F. Watts James Clarke Hook worked alongside the fishermen and rural families who populate and enliven his canvases this book reinvigorates our understanding of his artistic process and unique sense of place

Andrew Marvell's Liminal Lyrics Joan Faust, 2012-10-12 Andrew Marvell's Liminal Lyrics: The Space Between is an interdisciplinary study of the major lyric poems of seventeenth-century British metaphysical poet Andrew Marvell The poet and his work have generally proven enigmatic to scholars because both refuse to fit into normal categories and expectations This study invites Marvell readers to view the poet and some of his representative lyrics in the context of the anthropological concept of liminality as developed by Victor Turner and enriched by Arnold Van Gennep Jacques Lacan and other observers of the in-between aspects of experience The approach differs from previous attempts to explain Marvell in that it allows multidisciplinary and multi-media contexts in a broad matrix of the areas of experience and representation that defy boundaries that blur the line at which entrance becomes exit This study acknowledges that the poems discussed and by implication the entire corpus of Marvell's work and the life that produced it derive from a refusal to draw a definite divide In analyzing a small selection of Marvell's life and lyrics as explorations of various realms of liminality in word and image readers can see a passageway to the poet's works that never really reaches a destination instead the unlimited possibilities of the journey remain Thus the in-between aspects of the poet and his poetry actually define his technique as well as his brilliance
