Man Of Aran:

Man of Aran Pat Mullen, 1935      The Real Ireland Harvey O'Brien, 2004 The Real Ireland is the first study of Irish documentary film but more than that it is a study of Ireland itself of how the idea of Ireland evolved throughout the twentieth century and how documentary cinema both recorded and participated in the process of change More than just a film studies work it is a discussion of history politics and culture which also explores the philosophical roots of the documentary idea and how this idea informs concepts of society self and nation It features rare and previously unseen illustrations and a detailed documentary filmography the first of its kind in print anywhere      Principles of Visual Anthropology Paul Hockings, 2003 This edition contains 27 articles written by scholars and filmmakers who are generally acknowledged as the international authorities in the field and a new preface by the editor The book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television applications of filming to anthropological research the uses of still photography archives and videotape subdisciplinary applications in ethnography archeology bio anthropology museology and ethnohistory and overcoming the funding problems of film production      Nonfiction Film Richard Barsam, 1992-11-22 Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook Richard Dyer MacCann superb work Historical Journal of Film Radio and Television      Irish National Cinema Ruth Barton, 2004 Ruth Barton argues that in order to understand the position of filmmaking in Ireland and the inheritance on which contemporary filmmakers draw definitions of the Irish culture and identity must take into account the Irish diaspora and engage with its cinema      Ecosee Sidney I. Dobrin, Sean Morey, 2009-04-16 Examines the rhetorical role of images in communicating environmental ideas      Visions of Empire and Other Imaginings Jeannine Woods, 2011 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland's past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland's literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography political science and theology      Ethnographic Film Karl G. Heider, 2009-04-20 From reviews of the first edition Ethnographic Film can rightly be considered a film primer for anthropologists Choice This is an interesting and useful book about what it means to be ethnographic and how this might affect ethnographic filmmaking for the better It obviously belongs in all departments of anthropology and most ethnographic filmmakers will want to read it Ethnohistory Even before Robert Flaherty released Nanook of the North in 1922 anthropologists were producing films about the lifeways of native peoples for a public audience as well as for research and teaching Ethnographic Film 1976 was one of the first books to provide a comprehensive introduction to this field of visual anthropology and it quickly became the standard reference. In this new edition Karl G Heider thoroughly updates Ethnographic Film to reflect developments in the field over the three decades since its publication focusing on the work of four seminal filmmakers Jean Rouch John Marshall Robert Gardner and Timothy Asch. He begins with an introduction to ethnographic film and a history of the medium. He then considers many attributes of ethnographic film including the crucial need to present whole acts whole bodies whole interactions and whole people to preserve the integrity of the cultural context. Heider also discusses numerous aspects of making ethnographic films from ethics and finances to technical considerations such as film versus video and preserving the filmed record. He concludes with a look at using ethnographic film in teaching.

Film Essays and Criticism Rudolf Arnheim, 1997 One of the world's leading film theorists Rudolf Arnheim has been well known to readers of English since the publication of his classic Film as Art in 1957. This is the first English translation of another of his important books Kritiken und Aufsätze zum Film which collects both film reviews and theoretical essays most of them written between 1925 and 1940. As a young man in 1920s Berlin Arnheim began writing about film for the satirical magazine Das Stachelschwein. In 1928 as the Weimar Republic began to crumble he joined the intellectual weekly Die Weltbühne as film critic and assistant editor for cultural affairs. His most important contributions to both magazines are published here including witty and incisive comments on many of the great classics of the silent and early sound period such as Buster Keaton's The General and Fritz Lang's Metropolis. With the advent of Nazism in Germany Arnheim emigrated first to Italy where he wrote essays many included here for a nascent Enciclopedia del Cinema and then to England and the United States. The thirty essays on film theory discuss elements of theory and technique early sound film production style and content and the relationship of film and the state. The fifty-six critical pieces include Arnheim's thoughts on the practice of film criticism his reviews of German American French and Soviet films and his profiles of Greta Garbo Charlie Chaplin Felix Bressart Erich von Stroheim and others. Also included in the volume are an introduction newly revised by Arnheim and a comprehensive bibliography. Emerald Green Tim Wenzell, 2009-12-14 Emerald Green: An Ecocritical Study of Irish Literature analyzes a wide range of Irish literature whose themes tie into a reverence for the natural world of Ireland.
