highly influential twentieth century movements Heterogeneous Objects Raphaël Pirenne, Alexander Streitberger, 2013 Heterogeneous objects provides various essays that explore the encounter of photography with other media since the 1960s
 The essays offer new ways of thinking about photography beyond modernist notions of medium specificity and autonomy based upon the idea that a photograph does not rely on a coherent system of codes but is almost always encountered as a fragmented partial object Addressing recent debates in art history and photography theory film studies and media theory the contributions cover a broad array of approaches relating photography to issues of the panorama surveillance sculpture transformation and processuality and the development of new media categories Rather than conceiving of photography as a medium the aim is to reconsider the photograph as a historically theoretically and culturally embedded heterogeneous object that is always related to in contact with or shaped by other media Sixties British Pop, Outside in Gordon Thompson, 2024 Itchycoo Park 1964 1970 the second volume of Sixties British Pop Outside In explores how London songwriters musicians and production crews navigated the era's cultural upheavals by reimagining the pop music envelope Thompson explores how some British artists conjured up sophisticated hybrid forms by recombining elements of jazz folk blues Indian ragas and western classical music while others returned to the raw essentials Encouraging these experiments youth culture's economic power challenged the authority of their parents generation Based on extensive research including vintage and original interviews Thompson presents sixties British pop not as lists of discrete people and events but as an interwoven story nineteenth century figurative works to the conceptual work of the present The Surrealist Look Mary Ann Caws, 1997 The emotional charge Surrealism extended to the objects of its encounter makes itself felt as at least philosophically erotic This charged look determines the atmosphere around the Surrealist text and its encounters in the world of art and the world it made into art In this attempt to make sense of the way Surrealism sees conceals poses and stares at its own self and the selves of others the author examines the decors games portraits transformations and mirrorings that establish Surrealism's
