cutting edge work taking place in his field and decided that much of it was not fit for purpose Sacks found it hard to understand why most doctors adopted a mechanical and impersonal approach to their patients and opened his mind to new ways to treat people with neurological disorders He explored the question of deciding what such new ways might be by deploying his formidable creative thinking skills Sacks felt the issues at the heart of patient care needed redefining because the way they were being dealt with hurt not only patients but practitioners too They limited a physician's capacity to understand and then treat a patient's condition To highlight the issue Sacks wrote the stories of 24 patients and their neurological clinical conditions In the process he rebelled against traditional methodology by focusing on his patients subjective experiences Sacks did not only write about his patients in original ways he attempt to come up with creative ways of treating them as well At root his method was to try to help each person individually with the core aim of finding meaning and a sense of identity despite or even thanks to the patient's condition Sacks thus redefined the issue of neurological work in a new way and his ideas were so influential that they heralded the arrival of a broader movement narrative medicine that placed stronger emphasis on listening to and incorporating patients experiences and insights into their care

Medical Storyworlds Elena Fratto, 2021-11-02 Though often seen as scientific or objective medicine has a fundamentally narrative aspect Much like how an author constructs meaning around fictional events a doctor or patient narrates the course of an illness and treatment In what ways have literary and medical storytelling intersected with and shaped each other In Medical Storyworlds Elena Fratto examines the relationship between literature and medicine at the turn of the twentieth century a period when novelists were experimenting with narrative form and the modern medical establishment was taking shape She traces how Russian writers such as Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Bulgakov responded to contemporary medical and public health prescriptions placing them in dialogue with French and Italian authors including

Romains and Svevo and such texts as treatises by Paul Broca and Cesare Lombroso In nuanced readings of these works Fratto reveals how authors and characters question the rhetoric and authority of medicine and public health in telling stories of mortality illness and well being In so doing she argues they provide alternative ways of thinking about the limits and possibilities of human agency and free will Bridging the medical humanities European literary studies and Slavic studies Medical Storyworlds shows how narrative theory and canonical literary texts offer a new lens on today s debates in medical ethics and bioethics

Caring for Words in a Culture of Lies, 2nd ed Marilyn McEntyre, 2021-05-11 With the pervasiveness of vitriol and dishonesty today language needs to be revived and restored In Caring for Words in a Culture of Lies Marilyn McEntyre exposes the commercial and political forces that affect public discourse in American culture and counters with twelve constructive strategies of stewardship such as challenging lies including widely tolerated forms of deception and spin fostering the art of conversation and encouraging playfulness and prayerfulness in writing and speaking The second edition of this timely and timeless book includes updated cultural references and questions for reflection and discussion at the end allowing a new generation of readers to apply McEntyre s wisdom in a world that struggles with truth and graceful language more than ever before

Injustice and Restitution Stephen David Ross, 1993-09-28 This book addresses the nature and injustice of authority retracing the ideas of reason and law from ancient Greece to the present pursuing a line of thought begun with Anaximander who speaks of the ordinance of time as restitution for immemorial injustice and Heraclitus who speaks of justice as strife Predominantly philosophical exploring the authority of Western philosophy in twentieth century continental and pragmatist writings the book explores alternative voices as challenges to authority in feminist and multicultural writings in Greek mythology and African narratives in Greek drama and twentieth century literature The Art of Supposition Can Büyükbay,2025-08-05 What if our entire understanding of reality is shaped by what we suppose rather than what we know This book introduces a groundbreaking philosophical framework that explores the central role of supposition in human cognition culture politics and society Moving beyond traditional notions of belief and imagination the author presents supposition as a fundamental cognitive act one that bridges uncertainty and meaning perception and reality Drawing on philosophy neuroscience political theory and literature this book redefines the human experience through the lens of Homo Putans the supposing human For philosophers cognitive scientists and curious thinkers this book offers a deep yet accessible exploration of how supposition shapes our decisions identities and collective realities From Plato s doxa to modern political discourse the author weaves together diverse disciplines to reveal how the act of supposing is at the heart of knowledge creativity and existence itself Enter the world of Homo Putans where every thought is an invitation to question explore and suppose When the Body Says No Gabor Mate,2011-01-05 1 The Bermuda Triangle 2 The Little Girl Too Good to Be True 3 Stress and Emotional Competence 4 Buried Alive 5 Never Good Enough 6 You Are Part of This Too Mom 7 Stress Hormones Repression and Cancer 8 Something Good Comes Out of This Is There a Cancer Personality 10 The 55 Per Cent Solution 11 It s All in Her Head 12 I Shall Die First from the Top 13 Self or Non Self The Immune System Confused 14 A Fine Balance The Biology of Relationships 15 The Biology of Loss 16 The Dance of Generations 17 The Biology of Belief 18 The Power of Negative Thinking 19 The Seven A s of Healing Notes Resources Acknowledgments Index Powers of Distinction Nancy Levene,2017-12-06 In this major new work philosopher of religion Nancy Levene examines the elemental character of religion and modernity Deep in their operating systems she argues are dualisms of opposition and identity that cannot be reconciled with the forms of life they ostensibly support These dualisms are dead ends but they conceal a richer position another kind of dualism constitutive of mutual relation This dualism is difficult to distinguish and its concept of relation difficult to commit to It risks contention and even violence But it is also the indispensable support for modernity s most innovative ideals democracy criticism and interpretation In readings from Abraham to the present Levene recovers this richer dualism in its difference from the alternatives other dualisms nondualism multiplication From Abraham we get the biblical call to give up tribal belonging for a promised land of covenantal relation Yet modernity inclusive of this call is also the principle that critiques the promise when it divides self from other us from them Drawing on a long tradition of thinkers and scholars even as she breaks new ground Levene offers here nothing less than a new way of understanding modernity as an ethical claim about our world a philosophy of the powers of distinction to include rather than to divide Metagnosis Danielle Spencer,2020-10-27 Bridging memoir with key concepts in narratology philosophy and history of medicine and disability studies this book identifies and names the phenomenon of metagnosis the experience of learning in adulthood of a longstanding condition It can occur when the condition has remained undetected e g colorblindness and or when the diagnostic categories themselves have shifted e g ADHD More broadly it can occur with unexpected revelations bearing upon selfhood such as surprising genetic test results Though this phenomenon has received relatively scant attention learning of an unknown condition is often a significant and bewildering revelation one that subverts narrative expectations and customary categories How do we understand these revelations In addressing this topic Danielle Spencer approaches narrative medicine as a robust research methodology comprising interdisciplinarity narrative attentiveness and the creation of writerly texts Beginning with Spencer s own experience the book explores the issues raised by metagnosis from communicability to narrative intelligibility to different ways of seeing Next it traces the distinctive metagnostic narrative arc through the stages of recognition subversion and renegotiation discussing this trajectory in light of a range of metagnostic experiences from Blade Runner to real world mid life diagnoses Finally it situates metagnosis in relation to genetic revelations and the broader discourses concerning identity Spencer proposes that better understanding metagnosis will not simply aid those directly affected but will serve as a bellwether for how we will all navigate advancing biomedical and genomic knowledge and how we may fruitfully interrogate the very notion of identity
