Man With A Nose And The Other Uncollected Stories Of H G Wells:

The Man with a Nose Herbert George Wells, 1984 "The" Man with a Nose and Other Uncollected Short Stories of H. G. Wells H. G. Wells, 1984 H.G. Wells and the Short Story J. Hammond, 1992-09-15 H G Wells is justly famous as a writer of short stories but for too long the originality of his contribution in this field has been unacknowledged The present study argues that in his short stories Wells was not simply emulating the styles and themes of his predecessors but making a distinctive contribution to the genre grounded firmly in his approach to fiction The study demonstrates that Wells s short stories merit far closer critical attention than they have yet received and possess considerable psychological and symbolic insight Short Story Index , 1989 H.G. Wells and the Twenty-First Century Bill Cooke, 2023-09-15 H G Wells has been branded as a novelist who betrayed his vocation But Wells saw himself as what we would today call a public intellectual How credible is this claim And what happens when we look at him in this way So typecast has Wells s reputation become that neither of these questions has been previously asked but when we look at Wells as a thinker we find a whole new quality to his later works which have invariably been dismissed by literary scholars as of low quality or even not worth reading In particular Wells s prescience as a prophet of our current environmental problems stands out for example he foresaw anthropogenic climate change as early as 1931 Popular conceptions of Wells as racist imperialist and eugenicist are also challenged What emerges is a new perspective on a significant public intellectual and pioneering prophet of the twenty first century H.G.Wells and the Modern Novel J. R. Hammond, 1988-06-18 H G Wells Adam Roberts, 2019-11-23 This is the first new complete literary biography of H G Wells for thirty years and the first to encompass his entire career as a writer from the science fiction of the 1890s through his fiction and non fiction writing all the way up to his last publication in 1946 Adam Roberts provides a comprehensive reassessment of Wells importance as a novelist short story writer a theorist of social prophecy and utopia journalist and commentator offering a nuanced portrait of the man who coined the phrases atom bomb League of Nations the war to end war and time machine who wrote the world s first comprehensive global history and invented the idea of the tank In these twenty six chapters Roberts covers the entirety of Wells life and discusses every book and short story he produced delivering a complete vision of this enduring figure The Man with a Nose Herbert George Wells, 1984 The H.G. Wells Newsletter , 1981 Narratives of Memory V. Stewart, 2006-10-12 This book identifies memory a previously unexamined concern in both literary and popular writing of the 1940s Emphasizing the use of memory as a structural device this book traces developments in narrative during and immediately after the war Authors include Margery Allingham Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene Patrick Hamilton and Denton Welch The Utopian Vision of H.G. Wells Justin E.A. Busch, 2014-11-21 This book examines and develops the evolutionary utopian ideas of H G Wells It begins with a detailed consideration of the types of individuals who could create and live in ideal societies as well as the social aesthetic and intellectual aspects of utopian life in Wells s books It then discusses the role of the state and how Wells s

utopian thought requires a permanent commitment to expanding freedom The final chapter covers death and how utopian thought can profoundly reshape the reader's understanding of his or her own position relative to current and future societies

Identification Practices in Twentieth-Century Fiction Rex Ferguson, 2021-07-14 The task of identifying the individual has given rise to a number of technical innovations including fingerprint analysis and DNA profiling A range of methods have also been created for storing and classifying people's identities such as identity cards and digital records Identification Practices and Twentieth Century Fiction tests the hypothesis that these techniques and methods as practiced in the UK and US in the long 20th century are inherently related to the literary representation of self identity from the same period Until now the question of who one is in the sense of formal identification has remained detached from the question of who one is in terms of the representation of unique individuality Placing these two questions in dialogue allows for a re-evaluation of the various ways in which uniqueness has been constructed during the period and for a re-assessment of the historical and literary historical context of such construction In chapters ranging across the development of fingerprinting the institution of identity cards during the Second World War DNA profiling and contemporary digital surveillance and an analysis of writing by authors including Joseph Conrad Graham Greene Elizabeth Bowen J G Ballard Don DeLillo and Jennifer Egan Identification Practices and Twentieth Century Fiction makes an original contribution to the disciplines of English Literature History and Cultural Studies

British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime Beryl Pong, 2020-05-14 British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime excavates British late modernism's relationship to war in terms of chronophobia a joint fear of the past and future As a wartime between but distinct from those of the First World War and the Cold War Second World wartime involves an anxiety that is both repetition and imaginary both a dread of past violence unleashed anew and that of a future violence still ungraspable Identifying a constellation of temporalities and affects under three tropes time capsules time zones and ruins this volume contends that Second World wartime is a pivotal moment when wartime surpassed the boundaries of a specific state of emergency becoming first routine and then open ended It offers a synoptic wide ranging look at writers on the home front including Henry Green Elizabeth Bowen Virginia Woolf and Rose Macaulay through a variety of genres such as life writing the novel and the short story It also considers an array of cultural and archival material from photographers such as Cecil Beaton filmmakers such as Charles Crichton and artists such as John Minton It shows how figures harnessed or exploited their media's temporal properties to formally register the distinctiveness of this wartime through a complex feedback between anticipation and retrospection oftentimes fashioning the war as a memory even while it was taking place While offering a strong foundation for new readers of the mid century the book's overall theoretical focus on chronophobia will be an important intervention for those already working in the field Jane Austen and the French Revolution Warren Roberts,2000-12-01 This book argues that Jane Austin did know of the French Revolution and its effects on the European world even though she never refers to it directly in her writing An H.G. Wells Chronology J. Hammond,1999-07-19 A detailed chronology of the life of H G Wells tracing his career from his earliest writings to his world fame as a novelist prophet and popular educator This Chronology brings vividly to life his extraordinary energy and industry and the wide range of his friendships and interests Written by one of the leading authorities on Wells this Chronology offers a definitive outline of the life and times of a major twentieth century writer Novels of George Eliot Barbara Hardy,2000-12-01 Barbara Hardy's Novels of George Eliot is a classic study of Eliot's outstanding powers as a great formal artist The book's continuing appeal is due not simply to the perceptiveness and freshness of its writing but to the fact that form is interpreted in the widest sense to include whatever is relevant to the novels as organised articulated imaginative wholes and also as the direct expression of George Eliot's profound analysis of the human condition Love, Mystery and Misery Coral Ann Howells,2014-01-13 The current Gothic revival in literature and film encourages us to look again to the earliest Gothic novels written between 1790 and 1820 when Gothic was the most popular kind of fiction in England Dr Howells proposes a radical reassessment of these novels to emphasize their importance as experiments in imaginative writing Her object the study of feeling is central to Gothic for its spell consists in the feelings it arouses and exercises As pseudo historical fantasy Gothic fiction embodies contemporary neuroses especially sexual fears and repressions which run right through it and are basic to its conventions This study traces the effort to articulate these disconcerting emotions in symbol incident landscape and architecture The chronological design suggests developments in Gothic from the initial explorations of Mrs Radcliffe and M G Lewis through the Minerva Press novelists and Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey to new directions taken by C R Maturin in Melmoth the Wanderer and later by Charlotte Bronte whose Jane Eyre arguably the finest of Gothic novels places the earlier experiments in perspective Critical Essays on H.G. Wells John Huntington,1991 Literature and Modern Time Trish Ferguson,2020-05-06 Literature and Modern Time is a collection of essays that explore literature in the context of a wave of challenges to linear conceptions of time introduced by thinkers such as Bergson Einstein McTaggart Freud and Nietzsche These challenges were not uniform in character The volume will demonstrate that literature of the era under scrutiny was not simply reacting to new theories of time in some cases it is actually inspiring and anticipating them Thus Literature and Modern Time promises to offer a genuine dialogue between literature and time theory and in doing so will uncover and examine influences and connections sometimes unexpected between philosophers and writers of the era It will examine literary attempts to transcend and escape time and also challenge rupture based accounts of modernist time by demonstrating that literary texts commonly associated with brokenness decline or stasis also at the same time maintain faith in healing renewal and mobility This collection contains interdisciplinary research of the quite highest kind to see so many different kinds of time narrative historical mechanical subjective non linear time myth and nostalgia as well as time space discussed here is very stimulating indeed Professor Simon James
