Wells said in a lecture There was one who is too little esteemed who has done the thing of telling about the trade shops with a certain brutal thoroughness and he tells a great deal of truth That is Caradoc Evans in his book Nothing to Pay In America H L Mencken saw in Evans the fundamentalists of the South laid bare and offered one hundred free copies of his story collection to the local YMCA Nothing to Pay relates the story of Amos Morgan an ambitious draper from Cardiganshire who works his way up to London through the shop trade Largely autobiographical this novel was admired by the Welsh literati and has since become a classic of Welsh literature not only for its scathing satire but for its brilliant linguistic inventiveness and poetic style
