Man With The Twisted Lip:

The Man with the Twisted Lip Arthur Conan Doyle, 2019-05-27 The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is a collection of twelve short stories by Arthur Conan Doyle featuring his fictional detective Sherlock Holmes. It was first published on 14 October 1892; the individual stories had been serialised in The Strand Magazine between July 1891 and June 1892. The stories are not in chronological order and the only characters common to all twelve are Holmes and Dr Watson. The stories are related in first person narrative from Watson's point of view. Neville St Clair, a respectable businessman, has disappeared and his wife claims she saw him at the upper window of an opium den. Rushing upstairs to the room, she found only a beggar who denied any knowledge of St Clair, whose clothes are later found in the room and his coat laden with coins in the River Thames outside the window. The beggar is arrested but a few days later St Clair's wife receives a letter from her husband. Holmes concludes then proves that the beggar is actually St Clair in disguise; he confesses that he has been leading a double life as a beggar making more money that way than in his nominal work.

The Man With The Twisted Lip Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, P. James Macaluso, 2016-08-31 Sherlock Holmes, the world's only unofficial consulting detective, was first introduced to readers in A Study in Scarlet published by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in 1887. It was with the publication of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, however, that the master sleuth grew tremendously in popularity, later to become one of the most beloved literary characters of all time. In this book series, the short stories comprising The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes have been amusingly illustrated using only Lego brand minifigures and bricks. The illustrations recreate through custom designed Lego models the composition of the black and white drawings by Sidney Paget that accompanied the original publication of these adventures appearing in The Strand Magazine from July 1891 to June 1892. Paget's iconic illustrations are largely responsible for the popular image of Sherlock Holmes, including his deerstalker cap and Inverness cape details never mentioned in the writings of Conan Doyle. This uniquely illustrated collection, which features some of the most famous and enjoyable cases investigated by Sherlock Holmes and his devoted friend and biographer Dr John H. Watson, including A Sandal in Bohemia and The Red Headed League, is sure to delight Lego enthusiasts as well as fans of the Great Detective, both old and new.

The Man with the Twisted Lip Dr Watson accompanies Sherlock Holmes to Kent to investigate the strange disappearance of Neville St Clair, a respectable country businessman. A disfigured beggar is arrested for the murder of the missing man as some clothes of Neville St Clair were recovered from his room above an opium den. Holmes surmises, however, that the truth is less sinister and simply an exceptional case of mistaken identity.

Situating these representations within the context of Victorian visual culture and offering new readings of key works by Charles Dickens, Elizabeth Gaskell, Ellen Wood, George Eliot, Oscar Wilde, and Arthur Conan Doyle, Jaffe shows how mid-Victorian spectacles of social difference constructed the middle-class self and how late-Victorian narratives of feeling paved the way for the sympathetic affinities of contemporary identity politics.
