The Swan Song of Brother Antoninus, William Everson Brother Antoninus,1974 Man-fate William Everson,2011 William Everson Lee Bartlett,1988 In the annals of modern American letters William Everson holds prime place as a poet of conscience and consciousness of self his richly textured verse mapping his extraordinary inner journey as social activist Dominican brother and preeminent religious and philosophical poet In William Everson The Life of Brother Antoninus Lee Bartlett charts the outer journey drawing on the reminiscences of the poetry his friends and a wealth of archival material

Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley,1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War

Third Series* Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick,1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre-eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality. United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity, instantism, formal and syntactic flexibility, and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself, these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism. Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry: Charles Olson, Allen Ginsberg, Paul Blackburn, LeRoi Jones, Amiri Baraka, Denise Levertov, Robert Duncan, and others. Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman, Diane di Prima, Ed Sanders, Jerome Rothenberg, and James Koller. In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick, the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works. Benchmark & Blaze, Lee Bartlett, 1979.

The first published book-length study of the American poet William Everson, offering 22 important articles written since 1958 to acquaint the reading public with Everson's achievement. Authors include Kenneth Rexroth, Albert Gelpi, William Stafford, Linnea Gentry, A. V. Krebs, Brendon Cavanaugh, Harry Cargas, and the editors of Time. With introduction, chronology, selected bibliography, and index. New Directions 28, James Laughlin, Frederick R. Martin, 1974.

Updating the Literary West, 1997. Western writers says Thomas J. Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth. The editors of the Literary History of the American West (TCU Press, 1987) hoped that the first volume would begin, not conclude, their exploration of the West's literary heritage. Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West, a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars. A selected bibliography is included with each piece. In the ten years since publication of LHAW, western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream. A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study. New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened. Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature, ethnicity, environmental writing, gender issues, and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW. This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy, status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience. An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries. Selected list of contributors: James Maguire, Fred Erisman, Susan J. Rosowski, Gerald Haslam, Tom Pilkington, A. Carl Bredahl, Richard Slotkin, John G. Cawelti, Robert F. Gish, Ann Ronald, Mick McAllister. Encyclopedia of American Literature, Manly, Inc., 2013-06.

Susan Clair Imbarrato, Carol Berkin, Brett Barney, Lisa Paddock, Matthew J. Brucoli, George Parker, Anderson, Judith S. Contemporary American Poetry, Lloyd M. Davis, 1985. Lists over 5,200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983. Paperbound Books in Print, 1984. Poetry, Harriet Monroe, 1974. The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1986. The Publishers Weekly, 1974. Left Bank, 1991. West Coast Review, 1974.
