round as though expecting young Jolyon or some disinterested looking person to relieve them of the contents A well fed man in a white waistcoat said slowly through his teeth It's all greed they can to be hungry. Why they take no exercise At these words a tiger snatched a piece of bleeding liver and the fat man laughed. His wife in a Paris model frock and gold nose nippers reproved him. How can you laugh Harry. Such a horrid sight Young Jolyon frowned. The circumstances of his life though he had ceased to take a too personal view of them had left him subject to an intermittent contempt and the class to which he had belonged the carriage class especially excited his sarcasm. To shut up a lion or tiger in confinement was surely a horrible barbarity. But no cultivated person would admit this. The idea of its being barbarous to confine wild animals had probably never occurred to his father for instance he belonged to the old school who considered it at once humanising and educational to confine baboons and panthers holding the view no doubt that in course of time they might induce these creatures not so unreasonably to die of misery and heart sickness against the bars of their cages and put the society to the expense of getting others.
