The Literature of the Jewish People in the Period of the Second Temple and the Talmud, Volume 3 The Literature of the Sages Shmuel Safrai, 2014-12-15 The literary creation of the ancient Jewish teachers or Sages also called rabbinic literature consists of the teachings of thousands of Sages many of them anonymous For a long period their teachings existed orally which implied a great deal of flexibility in arrangement and form Only gradually as parts of the amorphous oral tradition became fixed was the literature written down a process that began in the third century CE and continued into the Middle Ages Thus the documents of the rabbinic literature are the result of a remarkably long and complex process of creation and editing This volume gives a careful and succinct analysis both of the content and specific nature of the various documents and of their textual and literary forms paying special attention to the continuing discovery and publication of new textual material The contributors are all engaged in academic teaching and research in Israel Incorporating ground breaking developments in research their essays give a comprehensive presentation published here for the first time

The Hindu Religious Tradition Pratima Bowes,2021-06-23 Originally published in 1977 The Hindu Religious Tradition provides a detailed exploration into the different doctrines regarding the nature of Religious Reality and the many paths of search for this Reality within the Hindu religion The book discusses these differing doctrines from the point of view of their philosophical significance and their use in man's search for the divine in consideration of the traditional teaching that the divine is already in man and can be realised in direct experience It provides a comprehensive account of this tradition through considering all aspects that are integral to it and highlights that the profundity of this tradition lies in that it cannot be limited to the requirements of any one form of conceiving the divine The Hindu Religious Tradition will appeal to those with an interest in Hinduism religious philosophy and theology The Works of Leonard Woods ... Leonard Woods, 1849

Jewish Law and Contemporary Issues J. David Bleich, Arthur J. Jacobson, 2015-09-18 Organized as a series of authoritative discussions this book presents the application of Jewish law or Halakhah to contemporary social and political issues Beginning with the principle of divine revelation it describes the contents and canons of interpretation of Jewish law Though divinely received the law must still be interpreted and completed by human minds often leading to the conundrum of divergent but equally authentic interpretations Examining topics from divorce to war and from rabbinic confidentiality to cloning this book carefully delineates the issues presented in each case showing the various positions taken by rabbinic scholars clarifying areas of divergence and analyzing reasons for disagreement Written by widely recognized scholars of both Jewish and secular law this book will be an invaluable source for all who seek authoritative guidance in understanding traditional Jewish law and practice
