Institution of a Christian Man Gerald Bray, 2018-06-28 Compiled during the early years of the Reformation Institution of a Christian Man lays out the principles of the nascent Church of England In his definitive new edition Gerald Bray charts the development of this text from the first version introduced by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and his cohort of bishops to the extensive edits made by Henry VIII himself and finally to the version written by Bishop Edmund Bonner under the radically different circumstances of Mary I s reign By combining the Bishops Book and the King s Book into a single text rather than in sequence Bray shows which sections were added deleted and retained throughout the revisions This process allows the Reader to reconstruct the texts and at the same time follow the process by which one was transformed into the other Bishop Bonner s Book which appears separately illustrates additional changes and elaborations from the previous two books Such a comparative study in a user friendly and accessible style has never been published before Although written nearly 500 years ago much of what these books pronounce is still valid and can be addressed to contemporary use A thorough analysis of content also sheds light on a neglected phase of the Reformation and provides a unique insight into the theological development that characterised the earliest stages of the Church of England The Abbey of Paisley, from Its Foundation Till Its Dissolution James Cameron Lees,1878
