A companion to the Customs Modernization Handbook, this book provides case studies on customs modernization initiatives in seven countries: Bolivia, Morocco, Mozambique, Peru, the Philippines, Turkey, and Uganda. The initiatives in each of these countries show similarities as well as differences in their approach and design. Some have relied on a model of independent revenue authorities; Uganda and Peru others have called upon private sector service providers to initiate the modernization process; Mozambique others have taken the drastic step of a complete overhaul of their customs staff; Bolivia and Mozambique others introduced new information technology to streamline customs processes and to integrate other members of the trading community into an electronic network; Ghana while still others have approached the modernization process as a pragmatic, well-focused, result-oriented process.
