Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library, 1974      Experimenting with Organizational Life Alfred W. Clark, 2012-12-06 The notion of preparing Experimenting with Organizational Life developed among members of the Human Resources Centre at the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations It arose from their concern that the learning from field engagements should be reported and passed on systematically A series of internal seminars was started and Robert Rapoport made a presentation on behalf of the group to a conference arranged by the United Kingdom Social Science Research Council in 1970 At first it was intended that only work directly connected with the Tavistock Institute should be included Gradually it became apparent that the book would be strengthened by drawing on the work of people outside the Institute In editing the contributions I am especially indebted to my colleague P Michael Foster convener of the Human Resources Centre for his unwavering support I would also like to thank the authors and all those who contributed their ideas and thoughts In the drive to unify the book they have cheerfully endured my editorial changes Hidden contributors to the book are members of the various client systems who granted privileged access to information and settings Special thanks are due to Nicola Lacy Scott who has acted as subeditor encouraging me when my spirits dropped and pressing for clarity of ideas and expression The secretarial burden was ably carried by Pamela Rant
