

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE OF MANAGEMENT

The global perspective of management

- The international market is concerned with managerial issues related to the flow of people, goods and money with the ultimate aim of managing better in situations that involve crossing the national boundaries.
- Free market agreements have made the fall of trade barriers which poses a serious threat to the manager because they increase competition in the task environment.
- The environment factors that affect domestic firms usually are more critical for international corporations operating in foreign countries.
- There is a need for more of global managers, they not only handle the professional goals but also handle cultural difference and human interaction
