Cities in a Globalizing World United Nations Centre for Human Settlements, 2001 The world has entered the urban millennium Nearly half the world's people are now city dwellers and the rapid increase in urban population is expected to continue mainly in developing countries This historic transition is being further propelled by the powerful forces of globalization The central challenge for the international community is clear to make both urbanization and globalization work for all people instead of leaving billions behind or on the margins Cities in a Globalizing World Global Report on Human Settlements 2001 is a comprehensive review of conditions in the world's Cities in a Globalizing World

Un-Habitat, 2012-06-25 The world has entered the urban millennium. Nearly half the world's people are now city dwellers and the rapid increase in urban population is expected to continue mainly in developing countries. This historic transition is being further propelled by the powerful forces of globalization. The central challenge for the international community is clear: to make both urbanization and globalization work for all people instead of leaving billions behind or on the margins. Cities in a Globalizing World: Global Report on Human Settlements is a comprehensive review of conditions in the world's cities and the prospects for making them better, safer places to live in an age of globalization. I hope that it will provide all stakeholders, foremost among them the urban poor themselves, with reliable and timely information with which to set our policies right and get the machinery of urban life moving in a constructive direction. From the Foreword by Kofi Annan, Secretary General, United Nations. Cities in a Globalizing World presents a comprehensive review of the world's cities and analyses the positive and negative impacts on human settlements of the global trends towards social and economic integration and the rapid changes in information and communication technologies. In this Global Report, the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat) draws on specially commissioned and contributed background papers from more than 80 leading international specialists. The report focuses on recent trends in human settlements and their implications for poverty, inequity and social polarization. It develops advanced knowledge for urban planning and management policies in support and promotion of inclusive cities and good urban governance. This major and influential report is the most authoritative and up-to-date assessment of human settlements conditions and trends. Written in clear, non-technical language and supported by informative graphics, case studies and extensive statistical data, it should be an essential tool and reference for academics, researchers, planners, public authorities and civil society organizations around the world. Best Entry-Level Jobs, 2005-2006

, 2005-04 Are you worried about finding yourself in an entry-level job that fills your day with chores like changing the toner cartridge on the Xerox machine? Let's face it: your first job out of college can be a rude awakening. But take heart: it doesn't have to be that way. Best Entry-Level Jobs reveals where the best first job opportunities in the country are and what you need to do to get one of them. We give you an inside look of hiring procedures, salaries, benefits and where entry-level hires usually work. We've interviewed hundreds of people who currently hold the entry-level jobs featured within these pages and they share with you their experiences and opinions about getting hired. Salaries, job responsibilities, on-the-job training, co-workers and corporate culture, opportunities for advancement. Eco-city Planning Tai-Chee Wong, Belinda

Yuen, 2011-05-02 Eco-city planning is a key element of urban land use planning in perspective and of ongoing debate of environmental, urban, sustainable development with a spatial and practical dimension. The conceptual basis of ecological planning is that we can no longer afford to be merely human-centred in approach. Instead, the interdependency of human and non-human species has forced us to appreciate the rights and intrinsic values of non-human species in our pursuit for a sustainable ecosystem This volume has as approach an emphasis on environmental planning policies whereby for example energy saving anti pollution measures use of non car modes construction of green buildings safeguarding of nature and natural habitats in urban areas and use of more renewable resources are promotional norms Their aims and leading outcome serve to protect the Earth from adverse effects of global warming and different sources of pollution threatening the quality of life of human societies Network World ,1999-10-04 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce
