Managing Professional Development in Schools Sonia Blandford, 2012-11-12 The importance of professional development for teachers cannot be overstated In recent years there has been much debate on how to raise standards in schools and it is now recognised by theorists policy makers and practitioners that the professional development of teachers is an important factor in this context For professional development co ordinators and senior management knowledge and understanding of the nature of professional development roles and human resource management theories will provide a framework for practice This book includes chapters on managing professional development in a human resources context government policy initial teacher training the school development plan appraisal middle management leadership skills It will be of interest to co ordinators of professional development in schools and across local education authorities and to anyone who is part of a school s senior management team

Effective Practices in Continuing Professional Development Peter Earley, Vivienne Porritt, 2009 Effective Practices in Continuing Professional Development presents case studies of schools journeys towards effective CPD practice as part of a TDA national project It tells the story of the goals set and achieved and the challenges and successes along the way Each case study makes specific reference to the nine factors or approaches to CPD identified in the book as underpinning effective practice This includes how a clarity of purpose was established at the outset of CPD activity and how the London Centre for Leadership in Learning s clear and rigorous impact evaluation framework supported and challenged projects to develop their thinking and practice All of this is contextualised within the wider literature about the successful leadership of CPD and the effective practice of school workforce development The editors introduce why effective CPD matters and conclude with the lessons learnt and ways forward Among the many cases provided by leaders in this field Sara Bubbs writes how coaching in a special school was used to make teachers and support staff feel more valued John Tandy describes how primary school heads came together with the Local Authority to jointly develop a Leadership Charter that was a summary of effective leadership practice in the Borough The book will interest practitioners and professionals who design and develop CPD opportunities and practice within all sectors of education as well as all working within the strategic leadership of CPD It also complements the TDA's national development programme for the leadership of CPD by showing how the strategic implications of the nine CPD approaches identified can improve the overall quality and impact of professional development and so enhance the learning for all children and young people
