Military History Of Modern China 1924 49:

The Secret Army Richard Michael Gibson, 2011-10-18 The incredible story of how Chiang Kai shek's defeated army came to dominate the Asian drug trade After their defeat in China's civil war remnants of Chiang Kai shek's armies took refuge in Burma before being driven into Thailand and Laos Based on recently declassified government documents The Secret Army Chiang Kai shek and the Drug Warlords of the Golden Triangle reveals the shocking true story of what happened after the Chinese Nationalists lost the revolution Supported by Taiwan the CIA and the Thai government this former army reinvented itself as an anti communist mercenary force fighting into the 1980s before eventually becoming the drug lords who made the Golden Triangle a household name Offering a previously unseen look inside the post war workings of the Kuomintang army historians Richard Gibson and Wen hua Chen explore how this fallen military group dominated the drug trade in Southeast Asia for more than three decades Based on recently released previously classified government documents Draws on interviews with active participants as well as a variety of Chinese Thai and Burmese written sources Includes unique insights drawn from author Richard Gibson's personal experiences with anti narcotics trafficking efforts in the Golden Triangle A fascinating look at an untold piece of Chinese and drug running history The Secret Army offers a revealing look into the history of one of the most infamous drug cartels in Asia

Military History of Modern China Frederik Fu Liu, 1972

Modern Revolutions John Dunn, 1989-06-22 Many political regimes today draw such legitimacy as they have from a revolution the destruction of an existing political elite and its replacement by a different group or groups drawn from inside the same society A large part of the ideological dispute in world politics has come in consequence to turn on an interpretation of the character of revolutions as political and social events It is extremely difficult to separate ideological assessments of the desirability or otherwise of what has occurred in revolutions from causal explanations of why these revolutions occurred and both major traditions in the analysis of revolutionary phenomena have been damaged by their failure to distinguish clearly between explanation and assessment In examining eight major revolutions of the twentieth century John Dunn helps readers to remedy this state of affairs by thinking for themselves

Kangzhan Leland Ness, Bin Shih, 2016-09-16 Kangzhan Guide to Chinese Ground Forces 1937 45 is the first ready reference to the organization and armament of Chinese ground forces during the Sino Japanese War of 1937 45 The work integrates Chinese Japanese and Western sources to examine the details of the structure and weapons of the period Recent scholarship has contributed greatly to our understanding of China's role in the war but this is the first book to deal with the bottom level underpinnings of this massive army crucial to an understanding of its tactical and operational utility An introductory chapter discusses the military operations in China often given short shrift in World War II histories The work then traces the evolution of the national army's organizational structure from the end of the Northern Expedition to the conclusion of World War II Included are tables of organization and strength reports for the wartime period The armament section illustrates and details not only the characteristics of the many and varied weapons used in China many seen nowhere else but also their acquisition and such local production as was undertaken This is complemented by a chapter on the arsenals and their evolution and production programs The Chinese army was one of the largest of the war and it and Japan s fought longer than any other It faced unique challenges including fragmented loyalties huge expanses of territory poor logistics networks inadequate arms supplies and often incompetence and corruption Nevertheless they fought bravely in major battles through 1941 and were able to counterpunch effectively in important regions through the rest of the war Aimed at both military historians and wargamers this work fills an important gap in our understanding of this the most under appreciated army of the war

Americans and Chinese Communists, 1927-1945 Kenneth E. Shewmaker, 2020-06-30 No detailed description available for Americans and Chinese Communists 1927 1945 Warlords and Muslims in Chinese Central Asia Andrew D. W. Forbes, 1986-10-09 This book provides a detailed study of Sinkiang China s largest province and of great strategic importance on the Russian border during the Warlord and Kuomintang Eras It is an analysis of the internal warlord and Islamic politics of Sinkiang as well as to take account of great power interests in this region during a period in which it was essentially a Han Chinese colony in the heart of Central Asia The study is of relevance not only to the history of twentieth century China but also to the politics of Islamic reassertion in Central Asia to the development of the Soviet Union as an imperial power in the Tsarist Russian mould to an understanding of the cultural and political aspirations of China s national minorities and should serve in a world preoccupied with Western colonialism and imperialism as a reminder that colonial kin and imperialism was not and is not an exclusively European preserve China's Wars Philip Jowett, 2013-11-20 This new history of China s pivotal wars from 1894 to 1949 explains how China was transformed from a isolated and ramshackle medieval empire into a fledgling new world power China is one of the great powers of the modern world Yet in the late 19th century China was a ramshackle and isolated medieval empire upon whom the European colonial powers could impose their wishes at will China s Wars describes the series of conflicts from 1894 to 1949 that forged modern China from colonial clashes such as the Boxer Rebellion through the chaotic years of warlord domination to the Japanese invasion the Second World War and the bitter Civil War that followed Previously unpublished photographs contemporary pictures and specially commissioned maps illustrate these tumultuous events and the men who fought them events that would end with the eventual triumph of the Communist Party and the rise of modern China A Continent Erupts Ronald H. Spector, 2022-08-23 A Foreign Affairs Best Book of 2022 Marvelous Spector s gripping book helps us to understand why the legacy of these conflicts is still with us today Sheila Miyoshi Jager New York Times Book Review The end of World War II led to the United States emergence as a global superpower For war ravaged Western Europe it marked the beginning of decades of unprecedented cooperation and prosperity that one historian has labeled the long peace Yet half a world away in China Indonesia Vietnam Korea and Malaya the fighting never really stopped as these regions sought to completely sever the yoke of imperialism and colonialism with all too violent consequences East and Southeast Asia quickly became the most turbulent regions of the globe Within weeks of the famous surrender ceremony aboard the U S S Missouri civil war communal clashes and insurgency engulfed the continent from Southeast Asia to the Soviet border By early 1947 full scale wars were raging in China Indonesia and Vietnam with growing guerrilla conflicts in Korea and Malaya Within a decade after the Japanese surrender almost all of the countries of South East and Southeast Asia that had formerly been conquests of the Japanese or colonies of the European powers experienced wars and upheavals that resulted in the deaths of at least 25 million combatants and millions of civilians With A Continent Erupts acclaimed military historian Ronald H Spector draws on letters diaries and international archives to provide for the first time a comprehensive military history and analysis of these little known but decisive events Far from being simply offshoots of the Cold War as they have often been portrayed these shockingly violent conflicts forever changed the shape of Asia and the world as we know it today The Rise and Fall of an Officer Corps Eric Setzekorn, 2018-08-30 The People's Republic of China is the only large country in the world that does not have a national military its military answers only to a political party the Chinese Communist Party For a brief period in the mid twentieth century China had the makings of a professional apolitical military force The Rise and Fall of an Officer Corps tells the story of that moment in the military history of modern China how it came to be why it ultimately failed and what it meant for China at home and abroad Between 1942 and 1955 a cadre of highly trained nationalistic and cosmopolitan Chinese officers created a professional depoliticized military a force that could effectively represent the aspirations of China as a world power Drawing on multiple archival sources and Chinese military journals author Eric Setzekorn charts the development of this new army as a critical cultural and political force with extensive connections to foreign powers During this period military officers were the primary actors in an intergovernmental partnership between the United States and the Republic of China The partnership gave officers access to educational opportunities and technological transfers that were central to their professional ideals Setzekorn's account of the career of General Sun Li-jen an American educated Chinese army officer illustrates the rise of this new sense of professionalism as well as its decline after 1953 Setzekorn then traces the failure of the army building project to a renewed politicization of military forces marked by a purge of key military leaders in 1955 by Chiang Kai-shek and his Kuomintang KMT party By focusing on this important chapter in Chinese military history Setzekorn's work also highlights broader patterns of military transformation during the pivotal period from World War II through the early Cold War His work is critical to understanding the rise of China as a military and world power Militarism in Modern China Odoric Y. K. Wou, 1978 Defence Modernization, Secret Deals, and Strategy of Nations Attar Chand, 1989 Workers at War Joshua H. Howard, 2004 This book focuses on the lives struggles and contrasting perspectives of the 60 000 workers military administrators and technical staff employed in the largest most strategic industry of the Nationalist government the armaments industry based in the wartime capital Chongqing The author argues that China's arsenal workers participated in three interlocked conflicts between 1937 and 1953 a war of national liberation a civil war and a class war The work adds to the scholarship on the Chinese revolution which has previously focused primarily on rural China showing how workers alienation from the military officers directing the arsenals eroded the legitimacy of the Nationalist regime and how the Communists mobilized working class support in Chongqing Moreover in emphasizing the urban working class and nationalist components of the 1949 revolution the author demonstrates the multiple sources of workers identities and thus challenges previous studies that have exclusively stressed workers particularistic or regional identities Contending Approaches to the Political Economy of Taiwan Edwin A. Winckler, Susan Greenhalgh, 2016-09-16 This work compares IT parks in China India Malaysia Singapore Taiwan and Hawaii in search of strategies that policy makers can employ to reduce the Global Digital Divide advance distributional equity and soften some of the negative effects of economic globalization The Politics of Retirement in Republican China, 1911-1949 Terrill Edward Lautz, 1976 Civil War in China Suzanne Pepper, 1978 Many books have tried to analyze the reasons for the Chinese communist success in China s 1945 1949 civil war but Suzanne Pepper s seminal work was the first and remains the only comprehensive analysis of how the ruling Nationalists lost that war not just militarily but by alienating the civilian population through corruption and incompetence Now available in a new edition this authoritative investigation of Kuomintang failure and communist success explores the new research and archival resources available for assessing this pivotal period in contemporary Chinese history The Roots and Consequences of Civil Wars and Revolutions Spencer C. Tucker, 2017-02-16 This book treats 30 important civil wars and revolutions across the world including Africa Asia the Americas Europe and the Middle East covering a broad swath of recorded history from ancient times to the present Human history as a whole results from social changes technological advances and evolutions in thinking and religion all of which often lead to wars and conflicts Behind each major war are myriad interrelated causes This book examines 30 of the most significant civil wars and revolutions in recorded history from ancient times to the modern era identifying the origins consequences and subtle impacts of many of these conflicts that are still being felt today A comprehensive overview essay as well as explanations of the causes and consequences of each conflict give readers the context needed to understand the importance of these seminal events Additional learning tools include a detailed timeline that sets all of the key events in the conflict in the proper context maps of several of the key battles that help readers visualize the strategies of both sides and a lengthy bibliography that offers a wealth of options to students looking to investigate any of the conflicts further The Burma Campaign Frank McLynn, 2011-10-04 This history reveals the failures and fortunes of leadership during the WWII campaign into Japanese occupied Burma a thoroughly satisfying experience Kirkus Acclaimed historian Frank McLynn tells the story of four larger than life Allied commanders whose lives collided in the Burma campaign one of the most punishing and protracted military adventures of World War II This vivid account ranges from Britain s defeat in 1942 through the crucial battles of Imphal and Kohima known as the Stalingrad of the East and on to ultimate victory in 1945 Frank McLynn narrative focuses on the interactions and antagonisms of its principal players William Slim the brilliant general Orde Wingate the idiosyncratic commander of a British force of irregulars Louis Mountbatten one of Churchill's favorites overpromoted to the position of Supreme Commander S E Asia and Joseph V. "Vinegar" Joe Stilwell a hard line and openly Anglophobic U S general With lively portraits of each of these men McLynn shows how the plans and strategies of generals and politicians were translated into a hideous reality for soldiers on the ground

China 1949 Graham Hutchings, 2021-01-14 Excellent The Economist A gripping account South China Morning Post Well worth reading The Morning Star A persuasive and readable narrative History Today Elegantly written The Tablet An excellent study The Chartist Engaging Asia Times The events of 1949 in China reverberated across the world and throughout the rest of the century That tumultuous year saw the dramatic collapse of Chiang Kai-shek's pro Western Nationalist government overthrown by Mao Zedong and his communist armies and the foundation of the People's Republic of China China 1949 follows the huge military forces that tramped across the country the exile of once powerful leaders and the alarm of the foreign powers watching on The well known figures of the Revolution are all here But so are lesser known military and political leaders along with a host of ordinary Chinese citizens and foreigners caught in the maelstrom They include the often neglected but crucial role played by the Guangxi faction within Chiang's own regime the fate of a country woman who fled her village carrying her baby to avoid the fighting a prominent Shanghai business man and a schoolboy from Nanyang ordered by his teachers to trek south with his classmates in search of safety Shadowing both the leaders and the people of China in 1949 Hutchings reveals the lived experiences aftermath and consequences of this pivotal year one in which careers were made and ruined and popular hopes for a new China contrasted with fears that it would change the country forever The legacy of 1949 still resonates today as the founding myth source of national identity and root of the political behaviour of modern China Graham Hutchings has written a vivid gripping account of the year in which China abruptly changed course and pulled the rest of world history along with it China's Use of Military Force Andrew Scobell, 2003-09-08 In this unique study of China's militarism Andrew Scobell examines the use of military force abroad as in Korea 1950 Vietnam 1979 and the Taiwan Strait 1995 1996 and domestically as during the Cultural Revolution of the late 1960s and in the 1989 military crackdown in Tiananmen Square Debunking the view that China has become increasingly belligerent in recent years because of the growing influence of soldiers Scobell concludes that China's strategic culture has remained unchanged for decades Nevertheless the author uncovers the existence of a Cult of Defense in Chinese strategic culture The author warns that this Cult of Defense disposes Chinese leaders to rationalize all military deployment as defensive while changes in the People's Liberation Army's doctrine and capabilities over the past two decades suggest that China's twenty first century leaders may use military force more readily than their predecessors A History of the Chinese Communist Party Stephen Uhalley, 1988
