Murder Of Conell Boyle Donegal 1898:

The Murder of Conell Boyle, Donegal, 1898 Frank Sweeney, 2002 On 30 August 1898 a sixty year old widower was murdered in his single roomed home in a quiet town land in north west Donegal This brutal event shocked the local community because there was no apparent reason for his murder He had no contentious involvement with his landlord nor did he have any interest in religious agrarian or political agitations He was a man of little money living on a few acres of broken mountain land in a scattered town land best described in 1898 as a peasant society This study sets out to examine that murder and its aftermath in the context of the changing society in north west Donegal at that time The Life of Sir Denis Henry A. D. McDonnell, 2000 Denis Stanislaus Henry occupies a unique place in the political and legal history of Northern Ireland politics As a catholic Henry supported the Union from the time of Gladstone s first Home Rule Bill of 1886 and after joining the Ulster Unionist Council upon its formation in 1905 unsuccessfully contested the North Tyrone constituency in 1906 and 1907 losing by the narrow margins of 9 and 7 votes respectively Henry set aside these setbacks in politics and continued with his legal career which saw him emerge as one of the outstanding lawyers of the Irish Bar practising in the Four Courts in Dublin and becoming Father of the old North West Circuit Henry eventually entered Westminster after winning his native South Derry seat in May 1916 in what was the first electoral contest in Ireland following the outbreak of the Easter Rising The Occasion was the first time in which a Catholic represented a Unionist constituency in Ulster and Henry s retention of South Derry in the post war general election of 1918 marked the last After a brief period as Solicitor General for Ireland in 1918 Henry was appointed Attorney General in 1919 and as the leading Irish Law officer was at the forefront in Parliament in defending and explaining Government policy during the Anglo Irish War of 1919 1921 Henry became the first Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland in 1921 and spent the final four years of his life leading a new Judiciary during one of the most turbulent periods in the province s history Irish Economic and Social History ,2004 Social change and everyday life in Ireland, 1850-1922 Caitriona Clear, 2013-07-19 Men and women who were born grew up and died in Ireland between 1850 and 1922 made decisions to train to emigrate to stay at home to marry to stay single to stay at school based on the knowledge and resources they had at the time This the first comprehensive social history of Ireland for the years 1850 1922 to appear since 1981 tries to understand that knowledge and to discuss those resources for men and women at all social levels on the island as a whole Original research particularly on extreme poverty and public health is supplemented by neglected published sources local history journals popular autobiography newspapers Folklore and Irish language sources are used extensively All recent scholarly books in Irish social history are of course referred to throughout the book but it is a lively read reproducing the voices of the people and the stories of individuals whenever it can questioning much of the accepted wisdom of Irish historiography over the past five decades Statistics are used from time to time for illustrative purposes but tables and graphs are consigned to the appendix at the back There are some illustrations An idea summary for the student loaded with prompts for future research this book is written in a non cliched jargon free style aimed at the general reader

Murder Trials in Ireland, 1836-1914 William Edward Vaughan, 2009 The book describes how the courts dealt with murder beginning with the coroner s inquest and ending with the conviction and hanging of the murderer Between these two points the exquisite almost balletic procedure of the courts and their officers is described the Crown s case against the prisoner is analyzed and the prisoner s defense is discussed Magistrates policemen crown solicitors witnesses jurors judges and hangmen make their appearances The prisoners whose silence before and during their trials was their most notable characteristic in the nineteenth century courts make their apperances too but not as prominently as their judicial custodians until they finally and briefly come into the limelight on the gallows An implicit theme of the book is the apparent contradiction between the apparent simplicity of the courts procedures and the complexity of the rules that determined their operation The book relies on a range of printed primary sources such as newspapers parliamentary papers law reports and legal textbooks and on MS sources in the National Archives such as the Convict Reference Files Series Irish Legal History Society
