Museum In Der Ddr:

The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18 Occupation and Communism in Eastern European Museums Constantin Iordachi, Péter Apor, 2021-07-29 This volume offers fresh perspectives on the representation of the recent past in museums of the Second World War and of communism in post communist Eastern Europe It does so against the background of recent European wide debates on history memory and politics The contributors from across Europe focus comparatively on a wide variety of case studies pointing out similarities and differences and accounting for transnational patterns of remembrance at regional and European level Occupation and Communism in Eastern European Museums argues that museums have a huge influence on the image of the communist past in Eastern Europe It shows how they use a vast array of media tools visual tactics and commercial strategies in order to substantiate ideological approaches to the past and to shape the attitude of public opinion Museums of Communism Stephen M. Norris, 2020-11-03 How did communities come to terms with the collapse of communism In order to guide the wider narrative many former communist countries constructed museums dedicated to chronicling their experiences Museums of Communism explores the complicated intersection of history commemoration and victimization made evident in these museums constructed after 1991 While contributors from a diverse range of fields explore various museums and include nearly 90 photographs a common denominator emerges rather than focusing on artifacts and historical documents these museums often privilege memories and stories In doing so the museums shift attention from experiences of guilt or collaboration to narratives of shared victimization under communist rule As editor Stephen M Norris demonstrates these museums are often problematic at best and revisionist at worst From occupation museums in the Baltic States to memorial museums in Ukraine former secret police prisons in Romania and nostalgic museums of everyday life in Russia the sites considered offer new ways of understanding the challenges of separating memory and myth Remembering the German Democratic Republic D. Clarke, U. Wölfel, 2011-11-08 Memories of and attitudes to the German Democratic Republic GDR or East Germany within contemporary Germany are characterized by their variety and complexity whilst the debate over how to remember the GDR tells us a lot about how Germans see themselves and their future This volume provides a range of international perspectives Spaces for Nostalgia Mario Panico, 2024-09-21 How is nostalgia expressed through space Studies of nostalgia have long illustrated the emotional dynamics which condition our desire to go back to a time and a space that belong to the past This book addresses this condition from an innovative perspective by over exposing the spatial dimension of nostalgia Doing so unveils alternative and complementary ways of thinking through how this emotion is activated in particular how space unlike time can be recreated in the present even in a different location with the deliberate aim of consoling this bittersweet sensation The volume defines this re creation as a space for nostalgia In this book this concept is applied within the context of cultural heritage and difficult memories As a further step then the volume questions the modalities through which nostalgia can interact with and permeate a space of memory therefore influencing collective understandings and the emotional re writings of our shared pasts Through case studies relating to challenging nostalgias for troubled pasts in Western Europe the book examines how the furnishing and use of space the discourses that surround it and the objects that become synecdoche of it provide a terrain where even unlikely or troubling forms of nostalgia can grow and blossom The Campaign State Gregory Witkowski,2017-12-15 Communist regimes are defined by dictatorial power state planning and active propaganda machines In The Campaign State Gregory Witkowski explores the intersection of these three elements in East Germany by focusing on mass mobilizations He dissects the anatomy of campaigns and argues that while mass mobilizations are often perceived as symbols of strength they also indicate underlying systemic weaknesses By focusing on the ability of regimes to mobilize individuals to transform society he explains both the durability and the ultimate demise of the German Democratic Republic This study seamlessly blends an analysis of top down campaign initiatives with the influence of such mobilizations on the grassroots level For more than thirty years East German leaders doggedly extended such mobilization efforts yet complete success remained elusive Witkowski reveals how local leaders campaign participants and peasants acted in ways both compliant and noncompliant with party goals to create societal change Campaigns became a ubiquitous part of life under communist rule Witkowski shows that such mobilizations were initially an integral part of state planning efforts and only later became ritualized as party portrayals of goals and accomplishments diverged from East Germans lived experience He argues that incessant campaigns exposed a substantial gap between rhetoric and reality in the German Democratic Republic that undermined the regime s legitimacy This valuable and original study will appeal to scholars and students of German history Communism and state planning Remembering and Rethinking the GDR A. Saunders,D. Pinfold,2012-12-15 Exploring the ways in which the GDR has been remembered since its demise in 1989 90 this volume asks how memory of the former state continues to shape contemporary Germany Its contributors offer multiple perspectives on the GDR and offer new insights into the complex relationship between past and present The Manichaeian Codices of Medinet Madi James M Robinson,2015-02-26 The seven Manichaeian papyrus codices of the fourth or fifth century were discovered in illicit excavation in 1929 in the Egyptian desert They were acquired in about equal halves by A Chester Beatty for his library and by Carl Schmidt for the papyrus collection of the Staatliche Museen of Berlin Having had access to the inventories correspondence and files in Berlin Robinson provides translations of the German and French documents to increase access to information previously unavailable to the scholarly community He narrates the slow and problem ridden path of the acquisition conservation and editing of these important works including their movements between dealers collectors scholars and the military in Egypt London Dublin Berlin Schondorf Gottingen Warsaw Leningrad Los Angeles Claremont and Copenhagen The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald,Helen Rees Leahy,2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work
