Mysterium Paschale Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1990 At once rigorously theological and warmly devotional this book gives an account of Christ's death and resurrection and their significance for the Christian life Reflecting Balthasar's characteristically Christocentric theology this is the first volume in Eerdmans new series

The Wisdom and Power of the Cross Richard Viladesau, 2020-09-17 The Wisdom and Power of the Cross is the fifth and final entry in Richard Viladesau's well regarded series on the theology of the cross from the historical crucifixion of Jesus to the present day Continuing his analysis of theological history through cultural contexts this volume correlates theoretical approaches with artistic representations showing the relation of theoretical to imaginative approaches The Wisdom and Power of the Cross examines modern and contemporary thought and images which look at the cross in the light of modern historical and scriptural studies science and the novelties of modern and post modern art and music Viladesau here considers how the passion of Christ has been thought about by theologians and portrayed by artists in the modern world Contemporary art and music reveal the lasting power of traditional images of the passion as well as new possibilities for expression The Wisdom and Power of the Cross surveys both traditional approaches to soteriology and revisionist theologies that take up the challenge of the meaning of the cross today in light of critical historical studies and modern science providing new understandings of traditional concepts like original sin and redemption Through his in depth exploration of the interweaving of aesthetic and conceptual theology Viladesau once more deepens our understanding of the foremost symbol of Christianity and its role in salvation history

Evolving Grace Jean-Pierre Fortin, 2024-12-15 Evolving Grace The Spiritual History of a Christian

Doctrine seeks to bring out the personal living significance and transformative power of the Christian faith throughout the ages This book spans from Patristic foundations through the elaborated systematic constructions of the Middle Ages to the profound transformation induced by the Protestant Reformation and Roman Catholic responses to it to twentieth century de and reconstructions This theological history grounded in and reflective of the spiritual experience and development of real Christians in and from the past contributes to the production and nurturing of a living theology in and for the present

Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin, 2015-09-15 In Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin offers the first systematic treatment and evaluation of the Swiss Catholic theologian's complex relation to modern speculative Russian religious philosophy Her constructive analysis proceeds through Balthasar's critical reception of Vladimir Soloviev Nikolai Berdyaev and Sergei Bulgakov with respect to theological aesthetics myth eschatology and Trinitarian discourse and examines how Balthasar adjudicates both the possibilities and the limits of theological appropriation especially considering the degree to which these Russian thinkers have been influenced by German Idealism and Romanticism Martin argues that Balthasar's creative reception and modulation of the thought of these Russian philosophers is indicative of a broad speculative tendency in his work that deserves further attention In this respect Martin consciously challenges the prevailing view of Balthasar as a fundamentally conservative or nostalgic thinker In her discussion of the relation between tradition and theological speculation Martin also draws upon the understudied relation between Balthasar and F W J Schelling especially as Schelling's form of Idealism was passed down through the Russian thinkers In doing so she persuasively recasts Balthasar as an ecumenical creatively anti nostalgic theologian hospitable to the richness of contributions from extra magisterial and non Catholic sources

Christ's Descent into Hell Lyra Pitstick, 2016 Pope John Paul II and Joseph Ratzinger now Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI both held Hans Urs von Balthasar in high regard Many assume that their praise of Balthasar implies approval of his theology of Holy Saturday but this book by Lyra Pitstick shows that conclusion to be far from accurate Pitstick looks at what John Paul II Joseph Ratzinger and Hans Urs von Balthasar have said regarding the creedal affirmation that Christ descended into hell and she shows that there are radical differences in their conclusions She then addresses some important questions that follow from these differences If they disagree who is right If John Paul II and Benedict XVI have lauded someone with whom they disagreed are there implications for papal infallibility Finally whose theology best expresses the Catholic doctrine of Christ's descent into hell and how can we know This careful concise exploration of what three of the twentieth century's most famous Catholic theologians had to say about Christ's descent into hell provides an accessible take on a difficult point of theological debate

Making Sense of Suffering: Theory, Practice, Representation, 2020-09-25 Suffering may be universal but it is not universally understood In this collection scholars from many nations and disciplines explore theoretical and practical approaches to understanding suffering as well as the ethics and effects of representing suffering in art and literature A Thomistic Christocentrism Dylan Schrader, 2021-08-13 Examines the theory of the motive behind Christ's incarnation developed by the Discalced Carmelites of Salamanca in the 17th century showing how it perpetuates the tradition of Thomas Aquinas and refutes the more modern theories put forward by Karl Rahner and Hans Urs von Balthasar The Holy Spirit Eugene F. Rogers, Jr., 2009-05-11 Beginning with the Church Fathers and moving right through to the present day The Holy Spirit offers a theologically informed international collection of the most important texts relating to Christians understanding of the Holy Spirit A new volume of texts and readings offering a chronologically organized selection of the most important and interesting writings on the Holy Spirit Considers how the Holy Spirit has always been an integral part of both Christian belief and systematic theology from the Church Fathers through to the present day Each set of readings is prefaced by an introduction from the editor drawing out the main themes and important historical points and linking the readings to what has gone before Tackles the disagreements over the role of the Holy Spirit within the Trinity and how it was a contributing factor in the split between the Western and Eastern Church Opens with a newly commissioned essay describing the importance of the Holy Spirit in the theology of the last one hundred years and in particular in relation to the revival of Trinitarian theology The Mind of Christ Stephen T. Pardue, 2013-09-12 This book brings a variety of theological resources to bear on the now widespread effort to put humility in its proper place In recent years an assortment of thinkers have offered competing evaluations of humility so that its moral status is now more contentious than ever Like all accounts of humility the one advanced in this study has to do with the proper handling of human limits What early Christian resources offer and what discussions of the issue since the eighteenth century have often overlooked is an account of the ways in which human limits are permeable superable and open to modification because of the working of divine grace This notion is especially relevant for a renewed vision of intellectual humility the primary aim of the project but the study will also suggest the significance of the argument for ameliorating contemporary concerns about humility's generally adverse effects

Reclaiming Participation Cynthia Peters Anderson, 2014-11-01 In an era that oscillates regularly between nihilism and the erosion of moral vision on the one hand and pseudo gnostic myths of self apotheosis on the other the classical Christian claim of human participation in the divine as the story of the transformation of human life in its physical moral spiritual and eschatological dimensions takes on radical counter cultural color It is an affirmation that offers hope and meaning for humanity secured by God's participation in human life through Jesus Christ The Christological ground of this claim is crucial to secure and animate the argument of this text The author performs in this a retrieval of the Christological vision of the unification of the divine and the human in the single subject of Jesus Christ as the programmatic center point of human transformation and participation articulated particularly by Cyril of Alexandria The patristic pattern is used as a lens through which to examine and assess modern iterations those of Karl Barth and Hans Urs von Balthasar In this the author provides a critical updating of this vital classical theme annotating a vision of divine life opened up for created participation that can foster hope in the climes of contemporary life

What are They Saying about the Trinity? Anne Hunt, 1998 A succinct overview of contemporary developments in Roman Catholic trinitarian theology The Rapture of God William Lloyd Newell, 2020-07-02 This is a book offering Balthasar's theological oeuvre as a kerygma of Christ's love proclaimed theologically as Christ's esthetics of glory in his mission to reinvent himself the world and us as beauty and glory Balthasar's hypothesis is that there is true theology and there is false theology For him theology is the unique science across the methods of which the decision of faith cuts and divides it into two halves that cannot be united to each other a genuine theology which presupposes faith and does its thinking within the nexus of Christ and the Church and a false theology which rejects faith as methodologically dubious and irresponsible and subsumes the truth of the phenomenon which discloses itself under an anthropological truth however this may be understood In William Newell's book he deeply reflects on the radical thinking being done in Catholic theology since the 1940s in Europe and now in the United States Each chapter each excursus each elision ushers the reader towards consolations without previous causes the essence of mysticism in its first stages The book as with true theology is a come and see beckoning the reader to an endless furtherance of the archetypal experience of Christ

The Epistle to the Hebrews and Christian Theology Richard Bauckham, Daniel Driver, Trevor Hart, Nathan MacDonald, 2009-06-25 A significant dialogue between biblical scholars and theologians The contributors to this substantial volume examine a number of key theological themes in the letter to the Hebrews the person and nature of the Son his high priestly work cosmology the epistle's theology of Scripture supersessionism the call to faith and more Contributors Edward Adams Loveday Alexander Harold W Attridge Richard Bauckham Markus Bockmuehl Daniel Driver Douglas Farrow Trevor Hart Richard B Hays Stephen R Holmes Morna Hooker Edison M Kalengyo Mariam J Kamell Bruce L McCormack Nathan MacDonald I Howard Marshall R Walter L Moberly Carl Mosser Mark Nanos Nehemia Polen John Polkinghorne Ken Schenck Oskar Skarsaune Daniel J Treier John Webster Ben Witherington Terry J Wright Spirit and Trauma Shelly Rambo, 2010-09-02 Rambo draws on contemporary studies in trauma to rethink a central claim of the Christian faith that new life arises from death Reexamining the narrative of the death and resurrection of Jesus from the middle day liturgically named as Holy Saturday she seeks a theology that addresses the experience of living in the aftermath of trauma Through a reinterpretation of remaining in the Johannine Gospel she proposes a new theology of the Spirit that challenges traditional conceptions of redemption Offered in its place is a vision of the Spirit's witness from within the depths of human suffering to the persistence of divine love

Deus Trinitas David Coffey, 1999-09-09 Recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in the doctrine of the Trinity following a long period in which it was considered irrelevant to the rest of theology and to the challenge of Christian life In this book David Coffey claims that this resurgence is caused by a renewed appreciation of the fact that salvation itself has a Trinitarian structure He argues that we cannot understand salvation without a solid understanding of the Trinity Coffey considers the full range of issues surrounding this central doctrine of Christian faith Viewing the doctrine of the Trinity in its historical and ecumenical context he seeks to arrive at a balanced vision that incorporates the insights of both the Western and the Eastern Churches In particular he wants to keep in sight both the immanent Trinity the Godhead considered in itself and the economic Trinity that is its role within the economy of salvation In Coffeys own model of the Trinity the Holy Spirit is seen as the objectivization of the mutual love of the Father and the Son This idea is most closely associated with St Augustine and Richard of St Victor Coffey however takes it much further presenting it as an explanation of the origin of the Son and the Holy Spirit and of the manner of operation of the Trinity in the economy From this model he is also able to derive a suggestion for resolving the ecumenical problem of Filioquism vs Monopatristism concerning the procession of the Holy Spirit the issue that has divided East from West for nearly a millennium Presenting a new perspective on a topic of renewed theological interest this comprehensive study has important implications for ecumenical discussions of the Trinity

Sacrificing the Church Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2019-10-01 In a context of scandal and decline the Christian church cannot afford to do business as usual It must regain its bearings and clarify its nature and purpose Sacrificing the Church provides this clarity by returning to the church s foundation Jesus Christ and him crucified It presents an ecclesiological vision in which every aspect of the church s life flows from and expresses the one sacrifice of Christ This sacrifice is the basis of every ecclesial experience the form and content of the church s life a life which shares in the eternal Trinitarian life of God By and as Christ s sacrifice we are introduced into the divine life This participation plays out in three key areas which set the church s agenda in the contemporary world its worship of God Mass mission to the world mission and efforts toward the unity of all people beginning with divided Christians ecumenism
