Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006      Private Practices Saskatchewan Meredith Cherland University of Regina,2013-10-23 First Published in 1994 The study of literacy no longer focuses solely on psychological processes In the past ten years literacy has been reconceptualized as a social practice or rather as social practices that make up the fabric of daily life Using an anthropological perspective Private Practices examines the broad fictional reading of middle class pre teen girls and offers fresh insights into the place of literacy both at home and at school in the construction of gender The author provides a wealth of evidence to support the central assumption of the book Gender is a cultural and social construction not a biological given Gender is something that people create while interacting with each other in all the practices of their daily lives including their literacy practices The book also provides critical analysis and commentary concerning the role that reading fiction plays in cultural reproduction In the hope that deeper knowledge of literacy as a social practice will support social transformation and eventually social justice the author suggests compelling reasons for the fact that girls read more fiction and different fiction than do boys      New York Magazine ,1987-08-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      New York Magazine ,1991-01-28 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea     Jeffers Studies ,2007     Writings on Art Mark Rothko,2006-01-01 The first collection of Mark Rothko's writings which range the entire span of his career While the collected writings of many major 20th century artists including Barnett Newman Robert Motherwell and Ad Reinhardt have been published Mark Rothko's writings have only recently come to light beginning with the critically acclaimed The Artist's Reality Philosophies of Art Rothko's other written works have yet to be brought together into a major publication Writings on Art fills this significant void it includes some 90 documents including short essays letters statements and lectures written by Rothko over the course of his career The texts are fully annotated and a chronology of the artist's life and work is also included This provocative compilation of both published and unpublished writings from 1934-69 reveals a number of things about Rothko the importance of writing for an artist who many believed had renounced the written word the meaning of transmission and transition that he experienced as an art teacher at the Brooklyn Jewish Center Academy his deep concern for meditation and spirituality and his private relationships with contemporary artists including Newman Motherwell and Clyfford Still as well as journalists and curators As was revealed in Rothko's The Artist's Reality what emerges from this collection is a more detailed picture of a sophisticated deeply knowledgeable and philosophical artist who was also a passionate and articulate writer     New York ,1991     A Museum Guide to Washington, D.C. Betty Ross,1986     Best Choices Along the Great Lakes: Lake Erie, Lake Ontario, U.S.; Niagara, U.S. & Canada Alan Diede,1990     Best Choices in Ohio Alan Diede,1989 Don't you just hate it when somebody much savvier than you muscles in on your territory makes you look dumb at what you do I'm afraid the Monsieur Going Places trained only in the art of how to be forever curious must take a back back back seat to publisher Alan Diede whose nosing around Ohio threatens to make this column go the way of the dodo Diede's 20 mule team of trackers writers copy editors have compiled a new book called BEST CHOICES IN OHIO Hands down feet up this helpful guide is the best of the best At 700 pages it goes practically into the next state So now we know Diede's encyclopedic view is informed if not insiderish organized more competently than a banker's wallet Browse BEST CHOICES learn what its compilers say are the state's most interesting shops vineyards museums doll shops hilly crags amusement parks resorts tours bakeries produce stores even coming attractions Make room for it in your glove compartment It has to be there     Art in America Frank Jewett Mather,Frederic Fairchild Sherman,1994
